BRYAN LECTURES NOT TO BE DISCONTINUED

To Be Heard for Last Time in Present Engagement
To-night

TOTAL INCOME THIS YEAR ABOVE $7,000

Public Man Should Not Be Turned by Criticism Says
Secretary of State

STATEMENT CLOSSES SUBJECT FOR PRESENT

Washington, D. C., Sept. 20.—Secretary Bryan, commenting to-day on the termination of his lecture engagements, announced that he would continue to lecture as long as he remained secretary of state, wherever he felt there was proper occasion and a desire to do so.

Mr. Bryan issued this statement. "This evening is the last of the Chautauqua lectures for the season. The total income from Chautauqua lectures this year is a little over $7,000. The net receipts after taking out the necessary expenses are something over $4,500. The number of whole week days which have been used for the lectures is, according to my recollection, seven. The remainder of the lectures have been delivered at places near enough to this city to leave in the afternoon sometimes as late as 8 o'clock. I would not assume that the public was interested in these details, but it is not for the fact that the representative of a few newspapers have regarded it as a matter of great importance."

When Mr. Bryan was asked if he would lecture any more during his connection with the state department, he replied: "I expect to lecture whenever I deem it desirable or necessary to do so, and have not in the least altered the plans which were made at the time I assumed the duties of the office. The criticism that has been directed against my lecturing is no more bitter than the criticism I have undergone at other times and for other things during my connection with politics."

"A part of this criticism is malicious, a part of it is partisan and a part of it is based upon misinformation. That which is malicious will answer itself, that which is partisan would be accepted as such, that which is based upon misinformation will cease when the critics are better informed."

"No man should remain in public life if he permits criticism to turn him and he cannot stay in public life if he permits criticism to turn him from doing what is right. He must decide his duty for himself and is answerable to the public for any mistake he makes. I regard lecturing as an entirely legitimate field. I lectured before I was nominated for the presidency. I lectured between campaigns. I shall continue to lecture and I shall not believe that any person whose opinion is worth having will think the less of me because I do so. This closes the lecture subject for the present."

Secretary Bryan will conclude his Chautauqua lectures for the season to-day with an address at Warrenton, Va.

MOTHER AND SISTER ASKED FOR APPROVAL

Thaw Extradition Proceedings Tuesday; Meantime Prisoner Reads Law Books.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 20.—The plans of the defence in the extradition proceedings against Harry K. Thaw awaited to-day the approval of the fugitive's mother and sister, who with the latter's husband, George Lauder Carnegie, were expected later in the day. Thaw was anxious to explain to his family his reasons for placing his case wholly in the hands of his New Hampshire counsel, who are working in complete harmony with former Governor or stone of Pennsylvania, the personal representative of the Thaw family.

Reports that Governor Parker was inclined to give Thaw his liberty and leave the final disposition of the case to the federal courts finds no support in a statement from the executive to-day, in which he said he would approach the extradition proceedings on Tuesday with a perfectly open mind. His only determination was, he said, that justice should be done.

Thaw said he was ready for another hard day's work with his correspondence and the law-books which he is searching for precedent bearing on his case.

COMING FOR HIS HEALTH.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 20.—Owing to ill-health, Chancellor McCrimmon, of McMaster University, is granted leave of absence. Insomnia has been troubling the chancellor for some time and his physicians recommend a stay in the relaxing climate of the Pacific coast. Mr. McCrimmon intends going to British Columbia.

HON. J. DANIELS

Secretary of United States navy, interested in new invention and who has sailors take singing lessons.

NIGHT PHOTOGRAPHY TAKEN BY WIRELESS

Vallejo Inventor's Machine Tested; Navy Experts to Investigate Uses

Vallejo, Cal., Sept. 20.—A local inventor has evolved a wireless photographic instrument which works only at night and reflects on a mirror a moving picture of everything within a radius of several miles. He has been invited by Secretary of the Navy Daniels to take the machine to Washington for inspection by experts of the navy department.

The instrument receives its impressions from a web of wires attached to a tall mast. For this reason it is adaptable to ships, making impossible, its inventor claims, night collisions, accidents due to fog and running foul of icebergs. It would be valuable, too, it is claimed, for army use, as the movements of an enemy at night could be easily followed.

A test was made recently of the instrument here. The night was dark, but observers say they saw reflected on the mirror a picture of the district for a distance of two miles, saw the shipping in the vicinity of the Mare Island navy yard, railway trains passing up and down the valley and persons on the streets of the city.

The inventor formerly was a wireless expert in the government's employ.

DANIELS HAS SAILORS TAKE SINGING LESSONS

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 20.—Pursuant to the recent order of Secretary of the Navy Daniels, 1,000 sailors at the local training station are now given singing lessons twice each week. The first lesson was given yesterday at the station and to-day the crew of the battleship Vermont were lined up to sing. There was fun galore among the blue-jackets. Some of them could not turn a tune with a monkey wrench, as some of their shipmates put it, and the singing masters run up and down the line like the leader of a German band looking for men with false notes.

The sailors enjoy the lessons, apparently, from the fun they have. The majority of the men can sing fairly well and their teachers hope to develop a strong chorus here.

WITH REPRIEVE ON WAY POPLE TELLS OF CRIME

Admits Evidence Given by Him That Caused His Conviction Was False.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 20.—Victor Poppe, sentenced to hang here Thursday next for the self confessed murder of a child, ignorant that papers granting his reprieve were on the way from Ottawa to-day made a statement in the court house where he is confined. In this statement he said that the evidence he gave at the trial and which convicted him was false, and was intended to shield the mother, Mrs. Willis.

He says he can prove his alibi at the time of the murder, and it was after it was done that he met Mrs. Willis, taking her to the hotel where she broke down and confessed to the murder, and told him that the dead child was lying concealed across the river.

Poppe will be a material witness when Mrs. Willis comes to trial.

NEW ZEPPELIN AIRSHIP.

Berlin, Sept. 20.—The new naval Zeppelin dirigible arrived here to-day, having made her first trip from Friedrichshafen in 11 hours at an average speed of 50 miles an hour against a 10-mph wind. The dirigible is a sister ship of the one which was destroyed in a gale off Heligoland on September 3, when fourteen men lost their lives.

CAPITAL READY TO BUILD FORT GEORGE

Three Days' Sale of Indian Reserve Lots Reached $1,250,000

FOURTEEN THOUSAND WAS HIGHEST PRICE

Location of Shops and Freight Point Announced on Behalf of Railway

CENTRAL INTERIOR HAS BANKERS' STAMP

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—The three-day sale of the old Fort George Indian reserve, adjoining the Port George town-site on the coast, was brought to a successful close yesterday afternoon in Pender hall. The total sales passed the $1,250,000 mark, making the highest record for an auction sale on the coast, and it is believed the highest sale of its kind anywhere. The sale was conducted by the Grand Trunk Pacific railway under the name of Prince George. Spirited bidding was evidenced from the start and continued throughout. The highest prices were located between the eastern boundary of the Port George townsite and George street, on the Indian reserve. Fourteen thousand dollars was the highest price for a double corner, and the average price for single lots was in the neighborhood of $1,000, and this including many of the cheaper lots to the extreme east. Representatives of some of the largest financial institutions on the continent were present at the auction and bid in a number of the higher priced lots.

The authoritative announcement by Auctioneer Ellis, on behalf of the G. T. P., that the passenger and freight division of the railway would be located on the Indian reserve adjoining the Port George townsite on the coast was the first official announcement since the hearing before the railway commission. His preliminary remarks indicated that the G. T. P. expected Fort George to be one of the largest cities in Western Canada.

Those interested in the development of the central interior are enthusiastic with the high prices obtained and the large number of building lots sold. The president of a local company, who has been interested in the colonization of the central interior for a number of years, said: "This sale firmly establishes value and gives the central interior the stamp of approval of the banker and the most conservative business man. Many of the building lots were bid in by wealthy syndicates who have had representatives on the ground and who have made a very thorough inspection of the possibilities of this new district. Now that values are officially established, large capital will be available for the development of the many natural resources near Port George."

FORTY FIGHT FIRE IN VAIN NIGHT AND DAY

Superior Court Adjourns So Jurors and Others May Attend Aid to Stay Spread of Flames

Portland, Ore., Sept. 20.—Fire breaking out on logged-off lands near Stevenson, Wash., 45 miles northeast of Portland, yesterday was vainly fought by a crew of forty men all night and to-day with an increased crew opposing it, the blaze is eating its way into green timber three miles from the Skamania county seat. The farm home of James Harris, one of the finest residences in the county, is directly in the path of the flames and every effort is being made to save the place.

There are 3,000 cords of wood ready for market in the path of the fire, and it is feared this will be lost. The superior court adjourned at noon in attendance could join the firefighters. There are no casualties reported and none likely to be unless some woodcutters have been cut off in the timber.

RAILROAD STRIKE IN GREAT BRITAIN ENDED

London, Sept. 20.—The strike of the railroad men in the British Isles virtually was ended to-day. Officials of the companies reached an agreement with the representatives of the men's unions on the basis of the reinstatement of all strikers who agree to handle all the traffic which the railroads are bound to carry under the law.

Indications also point to a settlement of the motor omnibus trouble on Monday.

OREGON LEADING.

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—In the international rifle shoot here to-day, Oregon finished ahead with 555, British Columbia second with 530 and Washington third with 574 in the 500 yards range shoot. The 300 yards shoot was started immediately after.

HOW THE NEW NORMAL SCHOOL WILL APPEAR

A view of the building at the corner of Lansdowne road and Richmond road in which future teachers for the province are to be trained. Luney Bros., the contractors, have been at work preparing the ground for the foundation of the structure, with the result that the excavation has been completed. The next operation which will engage the contractors is the placing of the substructure in the excavation. The new school will be finer than the existing institution in Vancouver and will cost well over a quarter of a million dollars before it is completed and equipped. A feature of the school will be the very efficient provision made for domestic science training.

COLONEL JAMES ROSS DIES AT SIXTY-FIVE

Railway Builder Constructed Canadian Pacific West of Winnipeg 30 Years Ago

Montreal, Sept. 20.—Colonel James Ross, millionaire railroad builder, died here to-day of heart disease after a two-weeks' illness. He was sixty-five years old.

Colonel Ross was one of the dwindling group of railroad builders whose names were linked with the construction of the Canadian Pacific. He was born in Scotland, came to America in 1868 when he was twenty years old, was identified in his early career with the Wisconsin Central, and on coming to Canada, was appointed first chief engineer and afterwards general manager of the Victoria railroad.

At the age of thirty-five Colonel Ross was entrusted with the difficult task of building the Canadian Pacific west of Winnipeg. Two years later he had completed the line over the Rocky mountains, Selkirk and the Gold ranges. On completion of this task he was given the contract for the remaining portion of the line and built it. During the last twenty years Colonel Ross was interested primarily in traction, power and mining operations.

SOUGHT SHELTER IN AMERICAN EMBASSY

Deputy Rodolfo Reyes Declined Huerta's Invitation Until Aware of Its Reason.

Mexico City, Sept. 20.—Fearing to respond to a call from President Huerta to come to the national palace, Deputy Rodolfo Reyes, former minister of justice, passed half the night in the United States embassy. Senor Reyes was one of the several deputies heading the opposition in the chamber of deputies to the appointment of Eduardo Tamarriz as minister of public instruction. After adjournment of the chamber, President Huerta summoned Senor Reyes and Deputy Urueta to a conference in the palace. Instead of complying, however, Reyes took refuge in the embassy until he had ascertained the nature of the summons.

A petition by Eduardo Tamarriz, one of the most prominent of the younger leaders of the Catholic party for permission to resign his seat in the chamber of deputies in order to accept the portfolio of minister of public instruction, tendered him by President Huerta to-day, brought about the first trial of strength in the chamber between the Liberals and Catholics. The Liberals triumphed, permission being denied.

TWENTY PASSENGERS ARE INJURED; SMOKING CAR ROLLS DOWN SLOPE

Occupants of Coaches on Denver to St. Louis Train Which Jumps From Track Rounding Curve Near Manhattan;

Defective Rail Cause of Accident.

Manhattan, Kas., Sept. 20.—Twenty passengers were injured, one probably fatally, when passenger train No. 4 on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad, eastbound from Denver and Colorado Springs to St. Louis, was derailed on a curve a mile west of here this morning. Eight coaches left the rails, one of them, the steel baggage and smoking car combined, rolled down a twenty-foot embankment, turning over three times and landing upside down.

The smoking compartment was full of passengers, most of whom were injured, but none seriously except J. P. Baldy of Herrington, Kas., who was crushed by a falling trunk. He probably will die. J. O. Thompson, conductor, was also seriously injured.

The smoking compartment was inundated and the passengers bespattered by a flood of cream from a congealment in the baggage room compartment.

A defective rail is said to have caused the accident. The train was running about twenty miles an hour when it left the rails.

SEATTLE PARK OFFICERS PAY VISIT TO VANCOUVER

Reciprocity in Ideas is Back of Invitation Being Accepted To-day and To-morrow.

Seattle, Sept. 20.—An official visit by the park commissioners of Seattle and Tacoma and their executive employees to Vancouver, B. C., as the guests of the Vancouver park commission is being made to-day. The party left here by boat last night.

The Vancouver park officials have frequently visited Seattle and Tacoma, securing plans and ideas for use in connection with their work in that city and as a reciprocal measure they have invited the park officials and executives of the Sound cities to come and inspect the progress of recreational work in the British Columbia metropolises.

To-day and to-morrow morning will be spent in looking over the parks of Vancouver and this evening they will be entertained by the park commissioners and other city officials. The local members of the party were: Park Commissioners J. M. Frink, J. D. Tremblay and Otto Roseleaf, Superintendent J. W. Thompson, Assistant Superintendent F. L. Fuller, Attorney Howard Hanson and Secretary Roland Cotterill.

NEUTRAL ZONE ASKED IN AZORES ARCHIPELAGO

British, German and American Governments Seek Protection of Ships Against Seizure.

London, Sept. 20.—A proposal to make the Azores archipelago an international neutral zone is being considered by the British, German and American governments, according to to-day's Manchester Guardian. The proposal is said to be incidental to the opening of the Panama canal.

The fact that German, American and British companies have a joint cable station on the islands makes free access to them of the utmost importance.

"It is proposed," says the Guardian, "that a joint treaty be arranged between Portugal and the other civilized nations by which a neutral international zone shall be established and strictly maintained in the archipelago. It is suggested that all vessels within this zone be protected against attack or seizure and allowed to receive provisions and fuel."

BANANAS TO BE FREE.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 20.—The tariff conference voted to-day to leave bananas on the free list. After a long controversy in which the inference of President Wilson was thrown in favor of the continued free importation of the fruit.

TROUBLE SEEN FOR AUSTRIA-HUNGARY

Count Berchtold's Resignation Will Be Effective Now in Few Weeks

CHANGES IN LEGATIONS AT VIENNA BY WINTER

Archduke Franz Ferdinand Favors Forward Plans for Army and Navy

UNREST IN CROATIA BOHEMIA DISSATISFIED

Vienna, Sept. 20.—There are indications on all sides of the coming of international trouble in Austria and Hungary. Count Berchtold, the foreign minister, a very gifted statesman, has already tendered his resignation to the Emperor, and it is well known that he cannot remain in office more than a few weeks. It is understood that the Emperor has requested him to stay until he returns to Vienna, and that the minister has consented to do so. The Emperor can confer with the new minister more easily in Vienna, without the necessity of his journeying to Lich every time that an important decision must be taken.

All Vienna is discussing the question of who is to be the successor of Count Berchtold. Many names have been mentioned in this connection, but so one has any real idea as to who will be selected for the very difficult task which will face any minister at this crisis. The fall of Berchtold is regarded as a very serious step, and of great weight in diplomatic circles, and very much will depend on the choice of a successor. There is to be a general change in the various embassies and legations in Vienna next autumn and winter, and there is a general feeling that whereas the men now in office have accomplished the very difficult task of keeping peace among the great powers, in trying circumstances no one can say what the new men will do. They are likely to be in favor of a more forward policy, and their diplomacy may be of a more brilliant order than that of those who are now retiring. Whether it will have such satisfactory results, from a purely European standpoint, remains to be seen, but it is hardly probable that this will be the case.

Meanwhile there are indications that the government is following the policy of keeping a tight hand on the reins of power in internal affairs. The Emperor has relegated certain powers to his heir, the Archduke Franz Ferdinand, which will save him much routine work in regard to the army and to the fleet. The archduke was always in favor of a forward policy, and for a large army and fleet. His increased influence indicates that Austria-Hungary will probably put all her plans of military and naval aggrandizement into execution. He will also advocate a stern repression of internal trouble.

Meanwhile there is considerable trouble both in Croatia and Bohemia. The constitution has long been suspended in Croatia. The method of high-handed repression has resulted in a number of attacks on the governor. These attempts became so common that the Emperor was forced to remove Baron Cuvay, a most unpopular Banau. His successor, who has been barely six weeks in office, is experiencing the results of the dislike of the former governor. In Bohemia, the Czechs and Germans are still struggling for political supremacy. There is sufficient money in the country, but none can be paid out without the consent of the Diet. Thus it became necessary to suspend the constitution. The state of affairs in these districts, which merely attracts notice because of the extreme measures which have been adopted to restore order, have their counterpart in a lesser degree in other parts of Austria-Hungary. They are indications of the times, and are bad augurs for the immediate future. Smoldering rebellion, kept down by repression, can only result in an explosion. What form it will take, no one can conjecture, but there are many indications of pending trouble.

MURET IDENTIFIED KNOWN AT HAMBURG

Warrants Issued for Fraud in 1909 Against Dentist Now at New York.

Hamburg, Germany, Sept. 20.—The police here to-day identified as Arthur Holbing the man now detained in New York as "Dr. Ernest A. Muret" and under suspicion of being concerned with the confessed murderer, Hans Schmidt, in his counterfeiting operations. Holbing was born at Nakel, in the province of Posen, in 1832. He resided at Hamburg from 1904 to 1909, posing variously as a merchant and insurance agent and a physician.

He lived in about twenty different lodgings here. Holbing became a member of the Hamburg Young Men's Christian Association under the name of Muret and was repeatedly in trouble in the courts.

He disappeared from Hamburg near the end of 1909 and warrants for swindling frauds are still out against him, both in Hamburg and Berlin.

MAYOR OF ROME SPEAKS.

Rome, Sept. 20.—Ernest Nathan, mayor of Rome, yesterday in connection with the exercises commemorating the forty-third anniversary of the fall of the temporal power, delivered a bitter anti-Catholic speech. It was his first speech antagonistic of the papacy since that delivered at the same exercises in 1910.

THIRTY ESCAPE FROM BURNING HOTEL BLOCK

Bellingham, Wash., Sept. 20.—Twenty-five thousand dollars worth of property was destroyed at Concrete this morning. The flames broke out in the rear of the E. H. Lucas building at 3:30 o'clock and soon spread to the Mount Baker hotel and another building owned by Lucas. All three were burned to the ground. There was about thirty people stopping at the hotel but all were able to make their escape from the burning building. Several sustained sprained ankles by jumping from upper windows, but no serious injuries resulted. The origin of the fire is not known. The property was covered by insurance to the amount of two-thirds of its value.

LONDON FINANCIER IS B. C. ADVERTISER

Edward Tozer Confident for Future of Province Impressed by Growth

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—Edward Tozer, a prominent financial man of London, who has large interests in British Columbia timber, is in Vancouver on his first trip. He is accompanied by Mrs. Tozer and by James H. Stephens, also of London.

On his westbound trip he visited Revelstoke, where the headquarters of the Forest Lumber Company, in which he has his largest interests, are situated and was accompanied from that city by W. A. Anstie, managing director of the Forest Lumber Company and president of the Mountain Lumbermen's Association.

Mr. Tozer is hopeful in regard to the financial situation in Western Canada. For his own part, he declared, he had every confidence in this province and would hereafter be a walking advertisement of its resources.

The cities, he said, had quite taken his breath away, although he had heard of great strides. It had made a great impression upon him.

Mr. Anstie stated to-day that the lumber industry was very quiet so far as the mountain mills are concerned, 40 per cent. of the mills capacity being idle, but better times were looked for in the near future.

Asked if in his opinion the new tariff law of the United States would make any difference to the British Columbia industry, he said: "The tariff will be of no immediate advantage to the mountain mills on account of high freight rates to reach tidewater, but in time it may help the industry to some extent."

DIAZ WAITS IN PARIS FOR CALL BY MEXICO

Mexican Soldier Has Not Recovered From Imprisonment in Vera Cruz

Paris, Sept. 20.—General Felix Diaz, who has just returned here from Biarritz, said he had seen the dispatch from Mexico City in the Paris newspapers that he had been summoned back to Mexico by President Huerta, but that he knew nothing more about the matter. Thus far, he said, he had received no order of recall, and would remain in Paris until he did so, holding himself in readiness to start at a moment's notice.

Asked if President Huerta would support his candidacy for chief executive of Mexico, General Diaz replied that General Huerta would take no interest in the election beyond seeing that it was properly carried out. He was confident, however, of the success of his candidacy, for which he declared his friends in Mexico are now working hard.

Since arriving in Europe, General Diaz has been in poor health. He complained that he never had recovered from the rigors of his three months' imprisonment in an underground cell in the old Spanish prison in Vera Cruz after his unsuccessful attempt to foment a revolution in October of last year.

According to one of his secretaries, General Diaz believes that the coldness shown him during his trip to the motives of his mission to Japan than to any antagonism by the people because of the part he took in the overthrow of Madero.

The secretary also said General Diaz had asserted that friendship for the United States would be one of the main features of his policy should he attain the presidency.

General Diaz said he left his uncle, former President Porfirio Diaz, at Biarritz, in surprisingly good health and able for a man entering his eighty-fourth year. He said his uncle would return to Mexico after calm had been restored, but as a resident only. He declared the former president would not re-enter the political arena.

One of his secretaries said General Diaz feels that the United States government may not be unfriendly toward his intention to become president of Mexico.

THREE MONTHS IN JAIL FOR BOOING AT STRIKE

Judge Moway May Be the Presiding Judge of Trials at Nanaimo.

Nanaimo, Sept. 20.—Chris Pattinson, district organizer of the United Mine Workers of America, was sentenced to three months in jail yesterday by Magistrate Simpson, on a charge brought under the Vagrancy Act, the accused being found guilty of booing, shouting loudly, and in other ways making himself objectionable to special police and military who were escorting prisoners from the railway station to the jail on Thursday of last week. Notice of appeal from the decision of Magistrate Simpson was made by Attorney Leighton. Pattinson being subsequently released, on bail, pending his appeal to higher court.

Hector Guillette was found guilty on a similar charge to that laid against Pattinson, and was sentenced to thirty days in jail, and Dr. Hynd was given sixty days for a similar offence.

The conviction of Pattinson, Guillette and Hynd completes the list of preliminary hearings. Crown Prosecutor Shoebottom leaves to-day for Victoria to confer with the Attorney-General's department, and the Crown will proceed with the speedy trials on Wednesday or Thursday next. It is stated on good authority that Judge Moway, of New Westminster, will be the presiding judge.

Edmonton, Alta., Sept. 20.—The debate on the speech from the throne was continued in the Legislature yesterday afternoon by Hon. C. R. Mitchell, minister of public works, who defended the record of the government. Other speakers were Robert Patterson, Macleod; Martin Wolfe, Cardston; John Kemmis, Pincher Creek, and Lucien Boudreau, St. Albert. Adjournment was moved by Dr. Stanley, of High River.

Joseph E. Staffer, Didsbury, was unanimously chosen speaker.

The Premier introduced a bill to increase the rate of interest on Alberta government debentures, government stock and terminal annuities from 4 to 4½ per cent.

At a caucus, Frank Walker, Fort Saskatchewan, was chosen Liberal whip, and C. S. Pingle, Redcliff, second whip. George Handley, of Okotoks, continues in the position of Conservative whip.

HUERTA IS VETOED.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 20.—The Mexican congress last night vetoed by a vote of 90 to 14, Provisional President Huerta's appointment of Edouardo Tamariz as minister of public instruction, according to a report to-day to the state department. Tamariz is one of the younger leaders of the Catholic party, which is avowedly in favor of electing General Huerta president.

CANADIAN MINERAL INCREASE $74,000,000

Government Bulletin Shows Comparison of Output Now and Decade Ago

Ottawa, Sept. 20.—An increase of $74,000,000 in the value of production during the decade ending 1910 is the gratifying story told by the latest census bulletin dealing with the mineral output of Canada.

Compared with the census of 1900, an increase is shown for the ten years of $49 in the number of mines or workings, of $85,774,248 in the value of buildings and plants, of 31,442 persons employed, and $74,000,000 in value of production.

The total value of the production throughout Canada during the year 1910 was $122,904,932. Coal, both as to tonnage and value, occupies the first place, with a value of $52,530,531; silver in ore and combination, the second, with $18,839,240; gold, the third, with $10,402,577; clay products, fourth, with $9,562,302; nickel fifth, with $8,276,313; copper sixth, with $7,817,552; stone seventh, with $4,472,474; and cement the eighth, with $5,851,066.

As a consequence of the opening, in 1904, of the Cobalt silver camp, Ontario takes the lead among the producers for value of mineral production, displacing British Columbia, which has dropped to second place. In 1910 the output of Ontario has reached the enormous total of $50,000,000, as against $10,000,000 in 1900. Nova Scotia has moved up to third place, displacing the Yukon, whose production has dropped from $9,000,000 in 1900 to $4,500,000 in 1910. The other provinces come in the following order: Quebec, with $11,600,000 output in 1910; Alberta, $6,000,000; Yukon, $4,500,000; Manitoba, $3,500,000; New Brunswick, $1,000,000; Saskatchewan, with a little over half a million, and Prince Edward Island with $12,320.

During the census year, Cobalt accounted for $17,637,556 of the total silver output for the Dominion of $18,839,240.

All of the lode mines were in British Columbia and Nova Scotia in 1900. Ontario and the Yukon each have three mines, which were reported for the first time in 1910, in addition to British Columbia and Nova Scotia.

LIVESTOCK EXHIBIT WANTED AT 1915 FAIR

Vancouver Progress Club Receives Request That Will Be Sent to Stock Raisers.

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—Daniel O'Connell Lively, live stock commissioner for the Panama-Pacific Exposition, to be held in San Francisco in 1915, has written to the Progress Club asking it to use its best efforts to interest the farmers of the province in a live stock exhibit for this great fair.

He suggests that the agricultural associations and the farmers as individuals be approached and induced to impress upon the government the desirability of having Canada represented with an exhibit of this class of agriculture.

With the new tariff law in existence, he declares that Canada has an opportunity of shipping live stock to the United States in large quantities, and suggests this as the best method of attracting the attention of the world to the fine class of stock produced in this country.

The Progress Club will send a copy of the letter to the various associations and prominent live stock raisers in the province.

GERMAN EMPEROR SAID TO OWN B. C. PROPERTY

Purchases, If Made Were Not Done Through Office of Alvo Von Alvensleben.

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—The Kaiser has become an extensive investor in land in Vancouver and elsewhere in British Columbia, says the Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent. His majesty's investments are said to be purely personal. Other eminent Germans are stated to have followed the emperor's example and to have purchased land in British Columbia, chiefly farming and forest lands.

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—Denial of the report that the emperor of Germany had become an extensive investor in Vancouver realty and British Columbia lands, through his office, is given in a statement by Alvo von Alvensleben.

EASTERN STOCK IS SHOWN AT DUNCAN

Annual Fair Opened Yesterday Equals Any of Previous Years by Cowichan District

Duncan, Sept. 19.—The annual fall fair of the Cowichan Agricultural Society opened to-day and will continue Saturday. It will equal any show yet held in Cowichan in ordinary classes, while in stock the number of entries exceed any of former years.

Particularly noticeable is a very large entry of Ayrshire cattle by Mr. Neas, of Alberta. These, added to George Mutter's and other local exhibitors, make a splendid showing.

In addition to the local Galloways, Mr. Teas, of Alberta, has brought a large number to the show. Mr. Cox, Brantford, Ontario, has brought a carload of sheep and one of Berkshires. These exhibits from Ontario and the prairie provinces are making a round of the show and will be seen in Victoria next week.

In Hiplstein cattle Bonnell, Paterson and Corfield, of Cowichan will be the largest exhibitors. There are over fifty entries in this class.

Of fruit and vegetables the quality and quantity is quite up to those of previous shows held here.

The flowers are very good and each succeeding year the arrangement improves, particularly in the annual and perennial collection. Sweet peas are particularly good and dahlias have some admirable blooms. There are six admirable collections of native ferns. One exhibitor is showing exceedingly handsome bronze blossoms.

Dr. and Mrs. Hassell and Miss Wilde judged the numerous table decorations and the first prize was awarded to Mrs. Townsend's very beautiful table decorated with lilies and carnations and two shades of annual and perennial delphinium.

Mr. Cox, from Brantford, is showing his stock all through Canada.

A number of his animals are imported English stock, some of which he bought from Colman (the mustard man).

The sports programme has been arranged for Saturday afternoon and a stock parade, which, owing to the presence of extensive outside exhibits, will be the best yet held, takes place to-morrow.

ASHCROFT ARRANGING FOR SALE OF POTATOES

Competition With United States Growers Started by New Association.

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—In order better to place the famous potatoes of the Ashcroft district on the dining tables of British Columbia, an association known as the Ashcroft District Potato Growers' Association has just been formed. It represents the potato growers along the C. P. R. main line from Savona to Spence's Bridge.

The association will try and interest the people of British Columbia in potato growing to the extent that they should buy the Ashcroft potato in preference to tubers grown in the United States. Great care will be taken to see that only the choicest are sent to the markets of the province.

A letter has been received from the new association asking the Progress Club to incorporate Ashcroft potatoes as well as Okanagan fruit in its campaign for "B. C. produce for B. C. people."

DRUNKENNESS CAN BE CURED.

Old Fallacy That Drunkenness Cannot Be Cured Exploded.

Many men drink who desire to stop the habit. Whiskey, however, has undermined the constitution and created a craving that is not to be denied and the man must have whiskey or something that will remove the craving and build up the system and restore the nerves.

Samaritan Prescription stops the craving, steadies the nerves, builds up the general health and makes drink actually distasteful and nauseous. It is tasteless and odorless and can be given with or without the patient's knowledge, in tea, coffee or food. It is used regularly by physicians and hospitals. It has cured thousands in Canada, and restored happiness to hundreds of homes.

Read what Mrs. G., of Hull, Que., says of it and what it did for her.

"It is four months to-day since I started to use your remedy. I followed the directions and had the best of results. One week after I started using your remedy the patient stopped drinking and has not drunk a glass of liquor since. I hope you will accept my heartfelt thanks. Hoping God will bless your remedy wherever tried, I remain,

Mrs. G., Hull, Que."

SEEKS PROHIBITION THROUGH DENMARK

State-Wide Campaign Introduced by Liberal Leader Who Calls Alcohol Poison

Copenhagen, Sept. 20.—I. C. Christensen, leader of the Liberal party, has started an agitation for statewide prohibition in Denmark. Not long ago the Liberal party successfully fathered a bill which enforces important restrictions on the sale of liquor in bars, restaurants and similar places, and the Liberal leader evidently intends to follow this up with a law enforcing total prohibition of the sale of intoxicants in Denmark.

During the past few years the Danish people have become more and more abstemious in their habits and as the younger generation is especially temperate, the agitation for prohibition is not based on any growing insobriety on the part of the people of the country.

In explaining why the Liberal party, which stands for a large measure of personal liberty, should be backing such a bill, Mr. Christensen says alcohol is poison and that the state should forbid and regulate its use just as it does in the case of other recognized poisons.

Until the late-temperance legislation went into effect, Denmark had depended upon education to fight the evils of intemperance, and this is the first time the advocates of the prohibition movement have sought government regulation of the liquor traffic.

It is believed that the people will acquiesce in the proposed legislation in spite of the alleged attack on personal liberty, which they feel must be limited for the benefit of the community. Some of the leading Liberal papers have protested strongly against the bill, one pointing out that a person is not educated by making him incapable of managing his own affairs, but by letting him live his life in the largest possible liberty under the responsibility of himself and the community.

The opposition papers attack the minister's new policy and insinuate that it is for the purpose of catching votes.

IMMIGRANT'S MOTHER RETURNED TO HER HOME

Authorities Act in Regard to Persons Who Become Public Charges in Vancouver.

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—Mrs. Susan Thompson, an aged woman, was started for her home in England to-day by the immigration authorities. Mrs. Thompson came here from England to live with her son in Vancouver. The day before her arrival the son was accidentally drowned. She, therefore, became a public charge when her small board of savings was exhausted. As she has relatives in the old country she is being sent back to them.

Ernest Harrison was started back to his home in Sussex, Eng. This lad is only 19 years of age, but illness from a tubercular trouble had made him a public charge. Maggie McKenzie was sent back to her home in Fife, Scotland. This woman is of weak intellect and by some mistake she and her child were sent through to Vancouver as immigrants. She was represented then to be a widow.

SQUAMISH VALLEY MAN FOUND DEAD ON RANCH

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—With the top of his head blown off from the effects of a bullet from a Winchester carbine, Martin Hilsaeth, an elderly Norwegian ranchman, has been found in his shack in the upper Squamish valley. A roughly-scratched letter on a table addressed to Mr. John Jackson, storekeeper at Bracondale, showed that the tragedy was not the result of an accident. Hilsaeth had led a lonely life during the seven years he had been in the valley. He had told some of his neighbors that he was 54 years of age, but was reticent about his relatives and antecedents. He is not known to have a living relative.

PANKHURST ADVANCE AGENT AT NEW YORK

New York, Sept. 20.—The immigration authorities did not molest Miss Joan Wickham when she arrived here to-day from Liverpool to prepare the way for Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the British militant suffragette leader. Mrs. Pankhurst is expected October 15. Miss Wickham went to woman's suffrage headquarters to meet Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont. She told reporters that the methods used by militant suffragettes in England were absolutely necessary to get some attention from officials there. "We have never attacked human life," said Miss Wickham, "but if the worst comes to the worst, there is a strong likelihood that we will do so."

BRITISH FLAG WILL BE HUNG WITH AMERICAN

New York, Sept. 20.—Mayor Kline announced last night that in appreciation of the extraordinary honors paid to the late mayor by the lord mayor and corporation of the city of Liverpool, as well as the citizens of that city, Mrs. Gaynor has requested the committee of arrangements to have the British flag entwined with the American flag in Trinity church during the services Monday.

In further appreciation the British consul and his aides have been asked to occupy seats in the church at the ceremony.

THE WATER QUESTION.

Mr. McDiarmid writes us an interesting letter on the extremely interesting subject of the comparative cost per thousand gallons of water if taken from Sooke Lake or purchased from the Esquimalt Water Works Company either by the requirement of the whole system or under the arrangement at present in vogue. Probably there is nothing the people of Victoria more deeply desire at the present time than light upon this very perplexing problem of water supply. Our correspondent appears to go very thoroughly into the matter, but we are not sure that even then he has completely cleared the matter up. At least he has not to us. Doubtless through an inadvertence Mr. McDiarmid in estimating the cost to the city of Esquimalt water per thousand gallons if the property were bought outright has failed to take into consideration what appears to us a very important factor. That is the revenue the city would derive from water consumers in Victoria West and all the territory outside of the city that falls within the constituency of the company. If that factor were included in the computation would it not materially alter the complexion of his very valuable deductions? Possibly if the company were asked to do so it might have the courtesy to supply the data necessary to make the comparison complete and convincing.

At the time the Sooke lake proposition was first placed before the ratepayers in definite form the Times took very strongly the position that the city should purchase the works of the Esquimalt company provided a bargain could be consummated upon anything like reasonable terms. We stated two reasons for taking that position. First, because it was essential and in line with conditions in practically all city municipalities that the people should own and control absolutely the water works and be in a position to supply water to all residents within the city limits and outside of them where practicable. Second, because the matter of the ultimate cost of going to Sooke lake was very indefinite. Our misgivings upon this second point have been more than justified. Notwithstanding the efforts of the Mayor and others to explain away facts, there is no question that already more money has been spent upon the Sooke lake scheme than the people were led to believe would complete the undertaking. Now that a second vote of a million and a half dollars is asked, if further attempts are made to darken counsel, there may be a danger that the by-law will fail to receive endorsement. That would be unfortunate, and we think it would be but right that the people should be treated frankly and candidly in discussing the question and given assurances based upon facts that the million and a half now asked will complete the work.

CARSON'S TARES SPRINGING UP.

James Larkin, leader of the striking transport workers in Dublin, justifies the strongarm methods which have resulted in serious riots by quotations from the speeches of Sir Edward Carson, the "patriot" of Ulster. Encouraging a revolt against the crown should the Home Rule Bill be enacted into law, Carson tells the Ulsterites that every man should have a rifle at his shoulder. Adopting similar tactics in the cause of the strike, Larkin advocates the use of brickbats and blackthorns. "We will follow Carson's example," said Larkin some time ago, "and from to-morrow morning in all our offices and halls we will enroll, organize and arm a volunteer force. Sir Edward has armed his men with Italian rifles. Do you arm yourselves with Irish weapons—blackthorns, hurleys and bottles." Sir Edward urged his followers "to break every law that was possible" and "to stick at no statutory illegality" in supporting some kind of rebel government against the crown. Larkin in effect says the same in regard to the industrial dispute. But the strike leader is under arrest and the high-placed leader of sedition preaches rebellion untouched.

No doubt the knightly agitator in Ulster deplores the lawlessness of the Dublin strikers. He probably points to the unrest in Ireland's capital as a sample of the industrial turmoil that would follow Home Rule. Larkin and his followers are resisting the officers of the crown who attempt to disperse them. They say they are unjustly treated; that the law protects the transport companies in their tyranny over the workers. Carson urges bloody resistance to the crown on the ground that Home Rule, though demanded by the majority of people in Ireland and even the majority of Ulster's representatives in parliament, would be unfair to Ulster. They should "stick at no statutory illegality" in their fight. Both leaders declare they have "righteousness" on their side. So do the suffragettes with a fundamentally stronger reason than either. But how on earth can anyone oppose the tactics of Larkin and his friends and justify those of Sir Edward Carson and his fellow-agitators?

Sir Edward Carson's incendiary speeches in Ulster have done almost irreparable harm. Henceforth every revolt against law and order will be justified by his arguments. Every mob that destroys property and threatens human life will recall that a distinguished public man and eminent lawyer has counselled violence in resistance to the law. In the present instance, in general terms the Dublin strikers want to gain the means of a more civilized life for themselves and their families; the Ulster Covenanters want to have Ireland governed in a way most offensive to the majority of its inhabitants. Each cause is pronounced by its leader to be good enough to abrogate its champions from all duty of law and order, King and parliament. Sir Edward and Larkin, therefore, are brothers in arms, and, we fancy, if either has any cause to object to such a comparison, it will be James Larkin. His men have not yet armed themselves with Italian rifles.

THE BABY SHOW.

There have been more than two hundred entries for the baby show at the fair. These have been registered at Spencer's store and the exhibition grounds. The clerk in charge in each case having been selected for her tact, diplomacy and inscrutability. Great care is necessary even at this preliminary stage in the contest. There must be nothing, even to the raising of an eyebrow, a sceptical sneeze or a non-committal cough, which could form the basis of a suspicion that might arise after the awards are made that everything has not been above board. The competition will touch very sensitive springs. Lawabiding fathers and gentle mothers can be transformed into ferocious agencies of wrath in such circumstances. We sincerely trust that the tribunal to whom will be entrusted the delicate duty of awarding the prizes will be persons of most excellent judgment and discretion. They must be thorough and conscientious, because from their decision there is no appeal except at the bar of public opinion. In this case the Privy Council will have no status. The arbitrator substantially must be final.

The pride of Victoria, its greatest asset, to the number of two hundred and fifty, and perhaps more, will pass before the umpires. As an attraction this feature will have the stock parade beaten off the boards. But there will be no sale after the contest. We have this on the most trustworthy authority, and we make the announcement so that any who may have been looking forward to something of the kind will not be disappointed.

The Times suggests that the winner of the prize send a challenge to Baby Reginald Newton, of Montreal. This little cherub captured first prize at the recent exhibition in Toronto and was acclaimed as Canada's finest baby. Victoria cannot allow such an impression to go unchallenged. Baby Newton may lead the batting and fielding averages in Montreal and Toronto, but he cannot claim the championship of Canada on the say-so of any Toronto tribunal and in the absence of competition from the west. He may, of course, insist that Victoria's aspirant go out and get a reputation before he will accept the challenge, but in any event we cannot allow him to claim undisputed supremacy among the babies of the Dominion.

NOTHING DOING.

In the closing hours of the annual meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association at Ottawa last year a resolution was received from the western grain growers asking them to support the movement for the increase of the British preference. The resolution, we were informed at the time, "caused much merriment," and a reply was authorized to the effect that the subject was too big for consideration at that late stage of the proceedings.

The grain growers this year forwarded their recommendation to the secretary of the association in ample time for consideration. We do not suppose the farmers expected that this body would endorse the resolution; they know, by this time, that the imperialism which was haunted so glaringly two years ago is thrown into the backyard when it comes to a question of allowing British goods to enter Canada on a cheaper basis. The manufacturers want this country to be their exclusive preserve so that they may pay large dividends on watered stock, the consumer being compelled by a high protective tariff to willingly render forth his tribute.

The old flag always takes a holiday when the association discusses the British preference, and prominent among those who join with the "empire saviors" in opposing any further concessions to British manufacturers are representatives of the big American trusts whose branches are operating in this country, the establishments whose presence in Canada are hailed as triumphs of the protective policy. The object of the grain growers in forwarding their resolution is simply to show that the patriotic talk with which these people buttress their advocacy of more protection is utter cant and humbug.

TOO CONFIDING.

The well-informed Canadian correspondent of the London Times (who is currently believed to be Sir John Willison of Toronto) is said to have informed his paper that the Borden government will take up the pressing question of tariff reform at the coming session of parliament. He even hints at a belief in ministerial circles that the Fielding tariff is too high and that the manufacturers will have to consent to a material reduction. All of which is very interesting in view of the fact that the Borden government was elected by opponents of tariff reform who proclaimed that the Fielding tariff was too low and that it ought to be hoisted as high as Haman's sacredly-historical gallows. And it is still more interesting because of the fact that the manufacturers behind the Conservative party and with the connivance of the said party attacked reciprocity, although it was a simple and effective way of reducing the tariff and taxes and the cost of living. But the correspondent should be very careful about accepting the statements of such variable public men as Premier Borden. The premier may change his mind many times yet before parliament meets three months and a half hence. And then of course the distinguished correspondent, relying too implicitly on his confidential communications, might "get in wrong" with his paper.

Our contemporary, quite naturally, defends the ministers for travelling in private cars attended by companies of retainers. They are simply looking into the requirements of the various districts, we are told. For example, Hon. "Bob" Rogers came out here and ascertained that we required a drydock. But he did not determine the place for the site of the dock, and the result is that two factions of spoilers are fighting like Kilkeny cats over the site and some other matters that are of vastly more importance to them than either the drydock or its site. And the probability is that the judgment of the engineer who was appointed to report on the suitability of a place for constructing the dock will cut very little figure in the matter. Everybody knows that "Hon. Bob" will decide in favor of the faction that approaches him in the right way.

If we have to choose between imprisonment in the city jail and the stocks for violating the Sabbath observance law, we will elect for the stocks, even in the rain. A drenching in the open air with the risk of pneumonia is preferable to even one night in the unsanitary atmosphere of Victoria's "black hole."

The authorities should make immediate provision for the better policing of the old Songhees reserve. This place has become a resort for vagrants and even criminals, and steps should be taken to clean it up and keep it clean. A short time ago a murder was committed there, and other crimes, some of which are of a serious nature, have been reported to the police. But to properly attend to the locality more men are required, and this will be especially noticeable during the winter season, when it is likely to become the rendezvous of all sorts of undesirables.

The Times has not criticized Sir Richard McBride for discussing the Oriental immigration question in London. Nobody objects to him talking on this subject there or in Tunis or Tripoli if he wants to. But we have criticized him for confining his advocacy of a white British Columbia to speeches instead of using his influence towards bringing this consummation about. Why does he not prevent the employment of Asiatics in coal mines? Here is something he can do. The laws of the province, which he is sworn to enforce, afford him a striking opportunity to prove his sincerity on the question. Again, why has he not attempted to induce Mr. Borden to carry out the policy of which he vaunts himself so ardent a champion? Has he made any representation in that quarter, where he is supposed to carry considerable weight? Can it be that the solid seven, the perivivid exclusionists of a few years ago, decline to back him up?

Although the Liberal Reform club has completed the details of organization it has a large roll of members, who will render a good account of themselves when the next provincial election occurs. In this connection note should be taken of the fact that the time for registration for the provincial list expires on the first Monday in October, and all those who have not registered should do so before that time.

The News Advertiser says the three ships Mr. Borden proposes to give to the admiralty will be stationed at a reasonable distance from British Columbia, sure, Gibraltar is only half way round the globe. Why should not part of the Mediterranean squadron be stationed at Esquimalt? It is a reasonable distance from Gibraltar.

Thirteen members of the nobility own fifteen square miles of the richest city in the world, and as ground landlords pay no taxes. Is it not a beastly shame that a little Welsh plebeian like Lloyd George should have the effrontery to disturb so blissful a situation.

ONLY BRITISH WORKMEN.

Jubilee Hospital Directors to Employ Them on New Building.

On motion of W. Blakemore and J. W. Holden, the board of directors of the Jubilee Hospital decided last night that only British workmen should be employed on the construction of the new hospital and only British materials so far as possible used. From the discussion it was evident that Alderman Cutburt's assertions about the number of foreigners employed on the city waterworks construction was largely responsible for the motion, which carried by a narrow majority.

Several proposals for alterations in the plans so as to effect material savings in the cost of the structure were made by Loring P. Rixford, of San Francisco, the architect, and were referred to the building committee. The contract for the three new wings will be let in about two months.

The financial report showed a deficit for the month of $1,000, which was attributed to a decrease in the receipts from paying patients. The cost of maintaining a patient was shown to be $1.55 per day. There are 55 patients in the hospital, as opposed to 33 at this time last year, but the admissions during the month were only 219 instead of 225.

$25.00 Will Buy An Excellent Man-Tailored Costume

THE new styles are so distinct and look so different to the ordinary Costumes that they are becoming even more popular than last year. Every garment is strictly hand-tailored and measures well up to the standard of quality that you would expect only from a high-grade custom tailor, but we don't ask the excessive price that has hitherto made the plain-tailored garments luxuries for the rich only. There is nothing that we can say in this advertisement that will be so convincing of the values that they represent as one glance at the goods themselves. Navy blue and black serges and tweed mixtures are the chief materials. Coats are made in the longer lengths, with cutaway or rounding corners, lined with Skinner satin, and the skirts show side pleats or slightly draped effects. All sizes are to be had, and the woman who wishes a costume that will give her entire satisfaction and a full season's wear will do well in selecting one of these garments. We guarantee a perfect fit.

Among the long awaited attractions which will come to Victoria this season is beautiful Kitty Gordon in "The Enchantress." Victor Herbert's best comic opera since "The Sergeant" according to the New York critics. Jos. M. Gaites will present this spectacular musical play at Victoria Theatre, two nights and matinee, starting September 26.

Miss Gordon is unusually fortunate in being able to make her debut on the Pacific coast in so brilliant and colorful a piece. The New York critics have said that Victor Herbert has never written more delightfully, many placing this piece beyond many of his early ones. Victor Herbert himself in a recent interview declared that it is his best work, best because it whimsically follows a genuine theme, from the light lingering melodies, through sparkling dances and chorus effects in brilliant triumphant finales. Certainly he has never written with so versatile and prodigious a pen. He acknowledges a deep debt of gratitude to Mme. de Gramsc and Harry B. Smith, the authors of the book, who provided him with a charming love story of the Graustark order. The genuinely dramatic situations, brimming with humor and breezy buoyant dances, increase the beauties of the piece.

It goes without saying that Jos. M. Gaites will continue the splendid reputation he has established among American theatregoers by supporting Miss Gordon with a cast of extreme merit. The usual Gaites ideas will be noted in working order production, which has the New York theatre stamp of approval, unbeatable in the eyes of those who follow the concern of the theatrical world.

SIDNEY LIGHTING ASSURED.

Contract Between Board of Trade and B. C. Railway Has Been Signed.—In Operation October 1.

A contract between the British Columbia Electric Railway and the Sidney Board of Trade has been signed by both parties, and provides for the installation of lights on the principal streets of the town for the convenience of the public. The lights will be installed at short notice and will be in working order by October 1. They will be placed at the corners of all streets, and though the initial scheme will be a modest one the contract leaves room for further improvement and developments to be made in the near future. To the progressive spirit of the merchants of the Island town is due the signing of the contract. They placed their affairs in the hands of the Board of Trade of Sidney.

With Sidney signed up for street lighting, the British Columbia Electric Railway lighting systems are now working in all towns and municipalities around Victoria, with the exception of South Saanich. South Saanich includes the rapidly populating districts of Cloverdale, Parkdale, Cadboro Bay, Mount Tolmie and that section north Strained Eyes.—It seems paradoxical that good vision and eye-strain can exist in the same eye, but they do, and are the cause of untold ache, pain and nerve derangements. Relieved by correct glasses. Frank Chaston, Optician and Optometrist, 418 Yates St. (corner Douglas). Suite 8.

Must Go to Work.—On a charge of vagrancy a laborer named Thomas Watson was arrested last night, and this morning Detectives Turner and Edens gave evidence that for three weeks past he had not been working but had been loafing about Johnson street.

Florence Nightingale Chapter.—The Florence Nightingale Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire will have a stall at the entrance to the women's building at the Agricultural Expo. next week, where they will be ready to render first aid to the injured, if necessary. First aid supplies will be on sale, also hot soup and candy, and donations of home-made candy from members and friends will be gratefully accepted during exhibition week.

Serious Charge Laid.—A Hindu named Lab Singh was arrested by Detectives Edens and Sittiano at 11 o'clock last night on a serious charge. When he was called in police court to-day it was apparent that he speaks enough English to understand and make himself understood in everyday affairs, but the magistrate considered that in view of the nature of the charge there should be an interpreter and the case was adjourned until Monday.

Concert at Institute.—The first of a series of concerts will be given in the Institute, Ontario street, on Monday evening next at 8.15. A fine piano, generously donated by Mrs. Pemberton, sr., will be opened on that occasion. The following ladies and gentlemen have kindly promised to assist in the evening's programme: Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Helmeke, Mrs. Jesse Longfield, Miss Luggin, Mrs. R. Jones, Mr. Ross, Mr. Jesse Longfield, and others. All seamen and those ladies and gentlemen who are interested in the work of the Institute and the sailors' welfare in the city are expected to attend.

Workmen in Court.—In Esquimalt police court to-day Arthur Parkinson was charged with having committed an assault on John Jolly, but after hearing the evidence of the two men the magistrate had no difficulty in deciding upon a dismissal of the case. The men were at work in the B. C. Marine Railway yards and Jolly, who was working as a helper, when sent five or six feet back by Parkinson, described as "chronic" language. He said that Parkinson struck him at a point on his nose which was indicated by sticking-plaster, but the other attributed the cut to Jolly stumbling over a plank when he pushed him out of the way. According to Parkinson Jolly had a backbone but it was so bent that he could not bend to hard work.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF THE ALLEN PLAYERS.

That a company of players can "come back" is sure proof of their drawing power. So popular have been the plays produced by Miss Verna Felton and the Allen Players during the past ten days that a special return engagement of four nights only has been arranged, commencing Monday next.

In response to a general request for a heavy dramatic offering they will present "The Gamblers," by Charles Klein, the author of "The Third Degree," "The Music Master" and other well-known plays. With so capable a company presenting such a powerful play Victoria playgoers are assured an attraction of more than usual interest.

ASSIZE CALENDARS.

Fifty-Eight Cases to Be Tried in Province at Fall Term of Court.

The calendar for the Victoria assizes as prepared by the attorney-general contains eight cases, these being as follows: Cook, theft; Cook, Hearn and O'Connor, fraud and conspiracy; Winaby, bribery; Rand, aiding and abetting bribery; Johnston, attempted murder; Deakin, theft; Quong, theft; Hirsch, false pretences.

At the Vancouver assizes there are nineteen cases, at Kamloops and Clinton, seven each, five at Vernon, four at Nanaimo, three at Prince Rupert, two each at Revelstoke and Fernie and one at Nelson, or a total of fifty-eight cases for the entire province. The attorney-general intends to apply for a change of venue in the strike cases which are down for hearing at the Nanaimo assizes, on the ground that it will be impossible to secure a fair trial in that city so soon after the strike troubles.

BAND TO-MORROW.

Interesting Programme Will Be Rendered at Beacon Hill Park by Musicians of Fifth Regiment.

At Beacon Hill to-morrow at 3 p.m. the Fifth Regiment band, with the kind permission of the colonel and officers, will play the following programme: March, "Cathedral"; Bonheur Selection, "Lucia di Lammermoor"; Cornet solo, "The Lost Chord"; Overture, "Marta"; Wallace Selection, "The Beggar Student"; Rustic dance, "Schone Madchen"; Grand selection, "Albion"; Baetens Chorus, "And the Glory of the Lord"; March, "The Emperor's Body Guard"; Meinecke.

From Manger to Cross.—On Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. and in the evening at 7.30 a lecture will be given on the "Life of Christ" by Rev. J. B. Warnicker in the Dominion theatre, Yates street, occupied by the First Baptist church. The lecture will be illustrated by the world-renowned motion picture "From Manger to Cross." This wonderful production contains 75,000 individual pictures in five reels which took eight months to produce at a cost of $80,000. Every scene was taken in its authentic location in the Holy Land. The First Baptist quartet will render appropriate music at each service.

OFFICIALS MEET TO ARRANGE SCHEDULES

Steamers of B. C. Coast Service Will Soon Be Running on Winter Timetables

With the arrival of the fall season the C. P. R. officials are now starting to settle down and figure out the winter schedules for all their steamers. This morning C. H. Bowen, assistant general passenger agent, and F. H. Glendonning, district freight agent, both of Vancouver, arrived here to confer with Capt. J. W. Truitt, manager of the B. C. Coast Service, regarding the new schedule. After an all-day session they will return to the Terminal City on the night boat. About October 15 it is expected that

MAY HAVE OIL

S. S. PRINCESS MARY

The officials will have some announcements to make regarding the services which will be maintained throughout the winter months. The ferry steamers operating in the triangular and midnight services will not likely have their times altered, but all the northern boats will be affected. The weekly trips to Skagway will be cancelled through the withdrawing of one of the steamers. Alterations will also be made in the Granby Bay service and the Ocean Falls and Logging routes. The Princess Patricia will probably make only one trip each day between Vancouver and Nanaimo, instead of two, as at present.

Start Soon Overhauling. As soon as the winter schedules go into effect the company starts giving the steamers their annual overhauls. The boats are changed and switched about until all have been out on the ways, had their hulls, scraped and painted, machinery thoroughly attended to and the interiors freshly enameled and painted.

It is not known whether the company intends to make extensive alterations to any of the steamers. It is probable that the Princess Mary will be equipped with oil-burners this winter, as she is the only remaining steamer possessing a steel hull that has not been converted by the C. P. R. The Mary and Sophia were both to have been made oil-burners last year, but owing to the fact that the company needed boats, time was only found to change the latter Princess.

CYCLOPS LEAVING

The Blue Funnel liner Cyclops, Capt. Arthur, will leave Victoria this evening at 7 o'clock after loading 3,600 barrels of whale oil, a lot of lumber and box shooks.

TAMBA IS BERTHING WEDNESDAY, ON TIME

Capt. Teranaka Reports by Wireless; Monteagle is Not Picked Up

"Arrive Victoria Wednesday afternoon; 70 passengers, 233 tons cargo," Teranaka.

The above was the reading of a wireless message received this morning by W. R. Dale, local agent of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, from Capt. Teranaka, master of the inbound liner Tamba Maru. The Tamba is making the run from Yokohama in fourteen days and is on time. Of the 70 passengers who will disembark here are 20 Chinese, the others being Japanese and Russians. The cargo consigned to this port is very light, 233 tons being all that the Tamba has for the local stevedores to work.

It was expected that the C. P. R. liner Monteagle, Capt. Davison, would have reported by wireless last night as she is due to berth here from Oriental ports the same day as the Tamba. It is expected that coast stations will get into communication with the vessel to-night. As usual, the Monteagle is bringing in a large number of missionaries and besides has a number of travellers in the saloon besides several hundred Chinese in stowage.

When the Monteagle sails on her next outward voyage she will have a new master on her bridge, Capt. Hailey, formerly chief officer on the Empress of India and later master of the same ship, is to relieve Capt. Davison on the four-master.

Huntsman Along in Morning. The local agents of the Harrison line look for the arrival of the steamship Huntsman, Capt. Goldman, here early to-morrow morning, completing her voyage from the United Kingdom. She left San Francisco on Thursday morning and should not take longer than three days to come up the coast. She will be in port for several days taking on 100,000 feet of lumber and discharging close on 15,000 tons of European merchandise.

There are a number of other liners due to arrive and depart from this port during the coming week. The C. P. R. liner Empress of Russia, Capt. Beetham, is looked for about Saturday morning from Hongkong and the Blue Funnel liner Antiochus, Capt. Flynn, should be in the day previous from Liverpool via the Orient. The Pen of Crombie, of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Co., along with Buena Ventura, Capt. Fitzsimmons, of the Maple Leaf line, are expected some time during the week. The Shidzuka Maru, Capt. Hirawaka, which flies the Nippon house flag, will be the only deep-sea steamer, being scheduled to leave on Tuesday afternoon.

FEVER FORCES SALVORS OF SESOSTRIS TO QUIT

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—Capt. T. L. Harrison, who recently attempted to salvage the Kosmos steamer Sesostris, which has been ashore on the beach at Ocos for nearly six years, was a passenger on the liner Pennsylvania which arrived here Thursday. Capt. Harrison has spent two months on the isthmus, and is now making arrangements for a further attempt to float the Sesostris. Work had been abandoned because of an epidemic of fever, but Capt. Harrison believes that the Sesostris will some day again be afloat.

MACHINERY DEPOT TO TRAMP OVER BOTTOM TO SEE ITS NATURE

C. P. R. Princess Will Be on Ways for Over Three Weeks

Officials of the B. C. Coast Service announced this morning that the contract for the repairing of the steamer Princess Maquina, which was badly damaged through striking a submerged rock in Alaska waters, has been awarded to the Victoria Machinery Depot. Early to-day the injured vessel shifted from the C. P. R. docks to the upper harbor and she will be hauling out on the slip there at once. A start will be made on the big job next Monday and it is expected that it will be all of three weeks before the steamer is again in the water.

The damage to the Maquina turned out to be more extensive than was at first expected. When the steamer was hauled out on the B. C. Marine ways at Esquimalt it was found that some 25 plates would have to be removed and a large number of frames straightened. Most of the damage is situated just aft of amidships. The C. P. R. called for tenders for the repairing of the steamer and Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle shipyards bid for the work. The result was that the Victoria Machinery Depot was instructed to go ahead and make the ship seaworthy. The contract price was not divulged, but it is believed to be quite large.

Rock Was Uncharted. The Maquina came to grief while carrying the party of geologists on their Alaska cruise. It was while steaming in Yakutat Bay that the vessel's hull came in contact with a pinnacle of rock. She was under a pilot bell, or otherwise the damage might have been far worse. On the chart of the bay there was no rock marked and deep water was supposed to be all around. As it happened there was only thirteen feet of water over the rock, but there was no bottom either forward or astern of the ship. It was fortunate that the Maquina had a double bottom or she would have been in difficulty.

While the Maquina is being repaired the steamer Tees will continue in the west coast trade, making two trips to Clayoquot and two to Hoberg each month. The people of the west coast towns are naturally disappointed over the return of the Tees, as they were greatly elated over the Princess Maquina being selected to tend to their needs.

Public Works Department Purchases Diving Suit; Will Have Survey Made of Harbor Bed

In order that the condition of the bottom of the Victoria harbor may be seen by human eyes, an order was placed some time ago by the public works department for a full diver's equipment, and yesterday three boxes arrived here containing the air pump and hose, helmet, boots, weights and other accessories which go to make up a complete suit. A small scow will now be secured from which a diver may operate.

It is not known whether a diver will be employed permanently by the department or whether District Engineer McLaughlin, who has done considerable submarine work, will walk over the bottom himself. By means of diving the work of cleaning out the harbor will be carried out in a more thorough manner. In the past the work of drilling on the rocks and scraping up the mud has been done mostly by steam work, although a great deal of it has been based on soundings.

Find Bad Places. By means of a tramp over the bottom the engineers of the department will be furnished with first-hand information as to really what is the nature of the bottom and its condition. The engineers will then be able to arrange a campaign for the cleaning out of all the obstacles which at present are a menace to shipping. The diver will discover where the mud is banking itself and the dredges will then be moored there and creep out the sediment until the harbor is level. In the case of the rock-dredging plant and the Lobnitz rock-usher the diver will be able to see if they have left any jagged pinnacles of rocks after they have completed their operations. He will also survey the rocks before the rock-removers start so as to give the bosses an idea of the best way to displace the material. A plan will be drawn after the diver has surveyed the harbor bed so that fast work may be inaugurated in getting the channel into the best possible shape.

PREPARE TO LAUNCH HALF A MILLION DOLLAR YACHT

Seattle, Sept. 20.—Arrangements have been completed for the launching of the palatial steam yacht Cypris, building at the plant of the Seattle Construction & Dry Dock Company at a cost of $500,000 for Daniel Cowan Jackson, the multi-millionaire copper mine owner of Salt Lake City. The vessel will be sent down the ways at 2 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon. The Cypris will be the greatest vessel of her type ever constructed on the Pacific coast. She will be a twin-screw, oil-burning steel vessel. The Cypris is being built in accordance with Lloyd's requirements, 231 feet long, 28 feet beam and 15.5 feet in depth. She will be equipped with two four-cylinder triple expansion engines, four Babcock & Wilcox boilers, and will be capable of maintaining a speed of seventeen knots.

The Cypris will be elegantly finished throughout. The dining room will be in carved teak, the music room in Circassian walnut and the library in selected African mahogany. She will be equipped with wireless apparatus of the latest quenched ray model, ice-making machinery and other modern improvements. There will be twelve state-rooms elegantly finished.

FREIGHT MARKET WEAK

Portland, Ore., Sept. 20.—In the chartering of the British steamer Hartington by Balfour, Guthrie & Co. to load wheat on the Sound at $3.30 for England, and of the Epsom to load grain here for the European continent at 75.00 for M. R. Houser, exporters view the freight market as decidedly weak when compared with conditions at the opening of the new crop season.

As the vessels chartered were on the tide list on this coast and there are no disengaged carriers remaining on the Pacific side, there may be a tendency to stiffen rates slightly.

The British ship Golden Gate, which was seeking business, has been chartered for lumber to the United Kingdom; the steamer Strathairn will load coal in Japan for San Francisco and take lumber back for Hind, Rolph & Co.

Davies, Faxon & Co. have engaged the steamer Strathairn for coal from Newcastle to San Francisco and back to Australia with lumber, as there has been general clearing up of vessels available for spot loading.

IRON HORSE MAKES BEAVER GIVE WAY

C. P. R. Will Abandon Fraser River Trade; Electric Train Beats Famous Steamer

After many years of useful service on the Fraser River tending to the needs of the settlers along the banks of that wonderful artery, the C. P. R. river steamer Beaver is to be withdrawn from the New Westminster-Chilliwack service for all time, according to an announcement made this morning by officials of the company. The iron horse is the cause of the disappearance from the Fraser of this faithful old craft.

Since the British Columbia Electric Railway started its service between Vancouver, New Westminster and Chilliwack, the business which fell to the lot of the Beaver was very small, and finally the traffic dwindled down until it did not pay the C. P. R. to maintain the service, and consequently the withdrawal of the sternwheeler has been ordered. This is the second time that the iron horse has blotted out inland navigation in the province of British Columbia. The other case was when the Grand Trunk Pacific started to operate trains over its falls-to-Hazelton. The iron-horse makes the trip so quickly that it is patronized over the boat which works up against a fast running stream.

Beaver a "Landmark." All the old-timers of Southern British Columbia and many of the younger generation remember the old Beaver. She might be termed a "landmark," and the people of the Fraser will not like to see her make her departure. The steamer was built in the winter of 1888 by the Allison Iron Works, of this port, to be sent north to participate in the Klondike rush. The sternwheeler, however, never left here and she was purchased by the Canadian Pacific Navigation Company. When the C. P. R. took over the interests of the C. P. N. the Beavers houseflag was changed, and ever since she has been flying the chequered ensign. The C. P. R. placed her on the Fraser River run many years ago, and she up to the appearance of the electric trains did a fine business.

It is not known just what the C. P. R. intends to do with the Beaver, but for the present she will lie up at the Royal City.

RECORD CROWD GREET PONYES

AT OPENING OF WILLOWS RACES

Surprises Feature the Opening Day; Victoria Owners Figure Prominently in Capital City Meet

Beautiful weather favored the opening of the Willows race meet this afternoon and one of the largest crowds that has ever attended a meet in the capital turned out to witness the inaugural of the fall races. The track was in the finest possible condition, due to the untiring efforts of the management, with the stand was appropriately decorated in the club colors of gold and blue. Victoria's social leaders turned out in large numbers for the opening.

Large Crowd Attended.
A special car service, provided by the British Columbia Electric railway, helped to bring out the enthusiasts, while countless automobiles lined the track. It was a big day for King Horse. All preparations had been completed and the programme went smoothly. The change from the mile track at Minoru to the half-mile circuit helped the sprinters and surprises were uncovered.

Of the 300 thoroughbreds quartered at the Willows, subject to the call of Starter Eddie Tribe, Victoria-owned equines promise to figure prominently. At least 40 performers will carry the colors of Victoria sportsmen, with some of the best horses in the course in the home contingent.

George A. Fraser, Dr. Richards, Mike Carlin, J. Taylor, Tom Martin, and Ted McAvoy are the leading Victoria owners, the sextet owning a number of speedsters rated high among the cracks of the half-mile track. Tomlin, Satorin, Gaty Fallon, Tellurium and Delmas are prospective purse winners from capital city stables.

Track is Right.
Horsemen are lavish in the praise of the condition of the Victoria track. A crew of men has been working on the course for three weeks and never has it been in better shape. Neither time nor expense has been spared by Mr. Fraser and his associates in giving the runners every opportunity for the shattering of records during the final meeting on the well-known track.

CONTRACT JUMPING

Ernie Johnson's case will come up for a hearing at Vancouver on Monday afternoon and Lester Patrick, manager of the Victoria Hockey Club, who is greatly interested in this trial, will go over to the Terminal City to be present at the hearing of the action. President Lichtenstein, of the Wanderer Hockey Club is suing Johnson for failure to live up to a contract signed last year, which Johnson jumped to keep one which he had previously signed in the Coast League.

LEAGUE MEETING ON SIXTH CLUB

Bees to Disband for Season at Tacoma Next Week, After the Rowdy Players

Victoria's baseball club will disband for the 1913 season, a week from Sunday at Tacoma. The Bees left for Tacoma yesterday afternoon, playing to-day and to-morrow in the City of Destiny. They start a week's series at Vancouver and then wind up with the final clash with the Tigers, Manager Delmas, to the times last night, said that there would be a great many changes in the line-up of the Bees before another season rolled around. "I intend to acquire a speedy club, even if I have to sacrifice hitting to secure the winged footers. We will buy a couple of good right-handed twirlers this winter, and I will do a little scouting in California to pick up two hard hitting outfielders and a couple of infielders. We intend developing our young pitching talent, and Victoria fans may rest assured that with a fair share of luck we will be battling all the way next year."

Pinch For Trouble Makers.
It is now said that a meeting of the Northwestern League will be held at Seattle the latter part of next week. The manager wants to settle the Portland franchise for 1914, and will also take steps regarding "roughneck" tactics on the playing field. Umpire Jimmy Toman has handed in a report re Fielder Jones on the subject, and there is every probability of iron clad rules being adopted to cover this ground. Automatic fines for every man who protests an umpire's decision would help, while suspensions for those who use foul language on the field and cause trouble would also aid the game a lot. It would give the umpires more control and the fans would enjoy the game better.

Allen T. Baum, president of the Coast League, has nothing to say on the question of allowing the Northwestern League to put a team in Portland again next year, as he says that is a matter for the Coast League directors to decide.

The drafting of Williams, the Sacramento twirler; Bill James, of Portland, and Ivan Howard, of Los Angeles, was well within the possibilities, as they all come within the ranks of the comers.

Charley Doolin will not be manager of the Phillies next season, according to a rumor. The choice appears to have narrowed down to two persons, Hank O'Day, the umpire, and Otto Knabe, the Phillies' second baseman.

REMARKED ON THE SIDE

Victoria Now Has a Two-Game Lead
That the Bees outclass the Tigers at least four games out of six has been demonstrated in the past few games on the home lot. Victoria showed more pep in the games against the Tigers than they have shown for many moons. Double steals, and snappy fielding, together with timely hitting proved the winning factor. Scientific ball has been winning more games for the Bees than the old slugging style, and the fans like it a whole lot better.

There is a Chance That Portland Will Stick.
According to recent reports from the Rose City, the Northwestern League may still be able to retain a franchise in Portland next season. The McCredie brothers are rather stuck on the showing of their Colts this summer. Fielder Jones has a soft spot in his heart for Portland and he will not allow the team to be taken out, unless the Coast magnates absolutely refuse to allow the club to remain.

Break Between D. F. A. and A. A. U. Imminent.
When a prominent Coast amateur authority states that the A. A. U. does not intend to stand for any boxing from either the swimming or soccer associations one does not have to look far to guess that a rift in the clouds has appeared. One of Vancouver's athletic moguls is responsible for the statement that the break will come this winter. The action of the D. F. A. in allowing professionals to take part in soccer contests with amateurs has annoyed the A. A. U. officers and they intend to lay down a strict ruling on this matter. The Canadian Amateur Swimming Association has continually been a thorn in the side of the A. A. U., because it will not submit to the Union's rulings. Wholesale suspensions are liable to be handed out when the A. A. U. starts on the rampage, and a merry war may be looked for.

COBB GAINS BIG LEAD IN BATTING

Jackson Weakens Under the Strain; Daubert Leads in National League

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Cobb, of Detroit, with an average of .395; Jackson, of Cleveland, with .374; and Speaker, of Boston, with .369, are making a neck-and-neck finish in the race for first batting honors in the American League. Cobb's twelve-point lead and the approach of the season's end make him favorite now. Places in the 300-class of the American League are held mainly by veterans. Hendriksen, of Boston, whose illness has kept him out of practically all the games of the latter half of the season, pounded the ball for an average of .351, while he was playing his twenty-five games, and that percentage is enough to keep him in fourth place.

Johnson in Front.
Next in order are Eddie Collins, Philadelphia, .342; Lajoie, Cleveland, .340; Baker, Philadelphia, .333; McInnes, Philadelphia, .323; Gandil, Washington, .322; Bauman, Detroit, .317; D. Murphy, Philadelphia, .315; Crawford, Detroit, .308; Williams, Washington, .306; Leivelt, Cleveland, .306; Stovall, St. Louis, .303; Schafer, Washington, .301. Milan, of Washington, now has 65 stolen bases and there is hardly a chance for anyone to catch him, though Moeller of the same team has 56.

Pitchers' records in the American League show Johnson ahead as usual. The first six rank: Johnson, Washington, .225; Hoack, Philadelphia, .209; Falkenberg, Cleveland, .231; Wood, Boston, .204; Bender, Philadelphia, .204; Walsh, Chicago, .206.

Daubert in National.
Jake Daubert, of Brooklyn, has attained the honor of holding undisputed the top notch among the National League batters. His percentage of .341 put him ahead of Earl Yonkling, the Brooklyn pitcher, who holds an average of .247. Heinie Zimmerman, champion batter of last year, is slowly climbing, but is still number 10, and probably will not be able to reach the top this year. Three hundred hitters in the National League in addition to Daubert and Yonkling are Miller, Philadelphia, .341; Hyatt, Pittsburgh, .338; Cravath, Philadelphia, .335; Becker, Philadelphia, .332; Hean, Boston, .324; Walsh, Philadelphia, .320; Viox, Pittsburgh, .315; Zimmerman, Chicago, .306; Titus, Boston, .306; Wagner, Pittsburgh, .305; Gibson, Pittsburgh, .305; Lester, Philadelphia, .304; Wheat, Brooklyn, .304; Zinn, Boston, .304; Hauser, St. Louis, .304; S. McGee, Philadelphia, .303; Meyers, New York, .303; Kling, Cincinnati, .301.

Hap Myers Second.
Cravath seems destined to win home-run honors for the year, as he now has 15; Luderus, of Philadelphia, has 13, and Sale, of Chicago, has 13. Carey, of Pittsburgh, has taken away the base-stealing lead from Myers, of Boston, having 49 to the latter's 42. Jim Vaughn's first defeat of the season came too late to be recorded in this week's averages, and he leads the National pitchers. The first five are: Vaughn, Chicago, 1,000; Demaree, New York, 833; Humphreys, Chicago, 824; Cooper, Pittsburgh, 756; Lohrson, Pittsburgh, 750.

NEW STARS FOR THE LOCAL SOCCER CLUBS
Secretary Jack Fletcher, of the Sons of England football club, states that George Hyman will be back with the S. O. E. again. He also claims a couple of new stars in Blandell and Denell newcomers to the city who are highly touted. A meeting of the club will be held on Monday night at the Victoria barber shop at which all the players are requested to be on hand. Officers for the season will be elected.

The Victoria Hibernians are busily preparing for October 4. A practice game will be played to-morrow at 10 o'clock at the Royal Athletic Park, and the following are some who it is said will be out: Crawford, Whitaker, Wilson, Dougan, Niven, Sinclair, Thomas, England, Jones, Fairhead, Brown. With many good players in addition to those mentioned in their ranks, the Hibernians say they will have as strong a team as any club in the city league.

TWO LOCAL CRACKS ON CANADA'S TEAM
Victoria will have two representatives on the British Columbia team that shoots this afternoon in the annual international match against the Washington and Oregon teams at Vancouver. The British Columbia team will be coached by Major McHarg, Sixth Regiment; Lieutenant-Colonel J. D. Stuart will act as captain, while the range officers will be Captain G. Kilpatrick, Seventy-second Highlanders, and Lieutenant A. Brooks, 102nd R. M. R. The team and alternates follow:—

Captain J. Slater, Sixth D. C. O. R.; Captain W. H. Forrest, Sixth B. C. O. R.; Captain W. S. Latta, Sixth D. C. O. R.; Lieutenant W. B. Hunter, Sixth D. C. O. R.; Lieutenant J. W. Ward, Sixth D. C. O. R.; A. M. S. Welford, Sixth D. C. O. R.; A. M. S. J. Caven, Fifth C. G. A.; Staff-Sergeant Carr, Fifth C. G. A.; Sergeant C. R. Porter, Sixth D. C. O. R.; Trooper Emmerton, Thirtieth B. C. Horse.

KANTY CAPTURES THE GET-AWAY GAME

Bees Perform Like Major Leaguers Beating Tigers 4 to 0; Alberts Stars

Just to show the capital city fans that he is going to the big leagues with the "stinkiest" feelings for Victoria, Ernie Kautsky, the Tinton club artist who is to join the Pirates next spring, held the Tigers to six scattered bingles yesterday, giving the Bees a two-game edge on the series, the final score being 4 to 0 with the Bengals failing to cross the rubber. It was a grand get-away for the local team and an equally finished performance for the big port side. Kauty was given big league support by the Islanders and never looked better. He did not issue a pass and struck out five batters, curving a strike across the pan for the final out, with the Tigers on second and third.

Alberts' Peg a Pippin. Dave Kraft pitched a nice article of ball, but the Bees managed to bunt their hits and he was also thrown down by his team-mates upon two occasions. The locals shaped up like a bunch of majors and with the exception of two boots, neither of which proved costly, they handled the cork centre in errorless form. Charlie Alberts was a prominent figure in the win of the Senators, the right fielder doubling West at the plate after a brilliant catch of Harris' long fly in the first inning that retired the side. Danny Shea and Charlie Swann were the heavy hitters for the home brews, both being robbed of sure homers by the terrific wind that swept in toward the grandstand, preventing long drives from topping the centre field fence.

Victoria started the scoring, Swann's triple and Brooks' infield single. Delmas forced Brooks at second, scoring on Harris' wild peg, Lamb's walk and Shea's timely single to left. In the fifth Crum singled, went to second on Kauty's infield out, to third on Alberts' single. Crum scored on Delmas' throw home. The final counter came in the sixth, Delmas walking and scoring on Shea's double to the left field boards. Tacoma had a chance in the ninth when Kurfess singled and was forced at second by Miller, the latter walking to third and Pries to second on Lamb's wild throw to first. Neighbors sprang to Lamb and West fanned.

The work of both outfields was a big factor in keeping down the hits, an even dozen put outs being registered by the gardeners. Only two bases on balls were handed out during the contest.

YOUNGSTER WINS AMERICAN TITLE

Francis Ouimet, Twenty Years of Age, Defeats Vardon and Ray Quite Easily

Brookline, Mass., Sept. 20.—The golf battle between England and America for the nineteenth open championship, with Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, two seasoned British players, playing twenty-year-old Francis Ouimet, of this city, in an eighteen-hole contest, began to-day in a typical Scotch mist.

Yet the sudden turf and dripping trees failed to keep back one of the largest galleries that ever followed a golf match in this country.

Vardon and Ray were two-to-one favorites over the Brookline boy at the drive-off at 10 o'clock, yet the army of Yankee enthusiasts was hopeful of victory, although almost content with Ouimet's exploits yesterday in playing such experienced golfers as Vardon and Ray to a standstill.

Ouimet started the play-off with a most thorough knowledge of every hole on the country club course. "He knows every spear of grass, every trap and every bunker," said his caddy. First hole—Ouimet 5, Vardon 4, Ray 5.

Second hole—Ouimet 4, Vardon 4, Ray 4. Third hole—Ouimet 4, Vardon 4, Ray 4. Fourth hole—Ouimet 4, Vardon 4, Ray 4.

HOW TO RESTORE YOUR NERVE FORCE

Every organ in your body is governed by a network of nerve wires. These nerves convey the power which runs the human machine. This power is called nerve force. Nerve force is nothing but electricity. The reason any organ becomes weak is because the nerves which control it lack electricity, or nerve force, the motive power of your body. This lack of nerve force is shown by weakness of any kind, whether in the stomach, liver, kidneys, heart or other organs.

If your memory is poor, confidence and nerve all gone, sleep restless; if you suffer frequent headaches and your eyes are dull and heavy, it shows that your supply of nerve force is depleted.

So many men try to build up nerve force by doping their stomach with drugs. It is impossible. What the nerves require is nourishment—nerve food. If there were any nourishment in drugs they might do some good, but you know there is not. Drugs are drugs, stimulants, narcotics, antidotes, poisons—not food—nerve life. Electro-Vigor soaks into your nerves and is taken up by them just as a sponge absorbs water. It nourishes and vitalizes the parts which drugs cannot reach.

Every dose of drugs that you put into your stomach weakens your nerves. Every time you kill a pain or an ache by stupefying the nerves with poisonous drugs—you are hurting them, and anyone can see that in time, by steady dosing, your nervous system will be completely broken down.

Electro-Vigor is a relief from the old system of dosing. It does by natural means what you expect drugs to do by unnatural means. It gives back to the nerves and organs the power they have lost, which is their life.

Electro-Vigor is not an electric belt. It is a dry cell battery, and makes its own power. It is easily, comfortably worn next to the body during the night and gives out a continuous stream of that strengthening, building, nerve-feeding force which is the basis of all health.

Every sufferer should try Electro-Vigor. It is far cheaper than a course of drugging. Gentlemen—I have used my Electro-Vigor for some months, and I am certainly pleased with the results. I am feeling better in every way, and hard work is now a pleasure for me. I wish everyone who suffers from a run-down condition, weakness, kidney trouble or any other ailment, would give Electro-Vigor a fair trial. It is most pleasant and strengthening and what it once removes never returns. Very respectfully yours,
GOTTLEIB SMITH,
Courtney, B. C.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham labo-this fact. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

CANADIAN CELEBRITIES

A PRIME MINISTER'S WIFE.

"What," asked an ingenious young member of parliament, addressing a seasoned Ottawa politician, "what is the first essential of a successful statesman?"

"A statesman's wife," retorted the other.

"But you are single?"

"I'm not a statesman."

"Well listen, son. For every born statesman that gets a hand on the tiller of state there are a thousand plain, uninspired statesmen who bring to their work ordinary vision, ordinary brains and common, honest desire to serve the country. Some such men become quite successful at times.

When you see one who is particularly successful or when you see one who has unmistakable signs of inspiration, look for the wife. There are states-men's wives, just as there are editors' wives, and clerks' wives, and ward-heelers' wives. Sometimes a statesman gets a clerk's wife of a clerk gets a statesman's wife. I have written plays about those things. But a statesman's wife is like a judge with a sweet temper and a sense of responsibility. Genius or common clay, give a public man a public man's wife and they'll make a success.
It is not alone a matter of social activity and that sort of thing. It is not a mere matter of outward appearance.

It is, indeed, my son, that a good wife can supply a public man. She acts as a shock absorber, a buffer between his heights and his depths. Many a good man might have done better work for his country if there had been someone waiting at home after his first speech to give him the right kind of criticism and the right kind of praise, instead of a just looking-glass reflecting a smirk."

And the youth went home and looked hard at the cabinet photograph of the girl he said good-bye to last, on leaving to conquer Ottawa.

Very grave, very—what women call
"sweet," very tactful and very interesting, and interested, is Mrs. R. L.
Borden, a statesman's wife. It is for history and not for partisan contenporaries to say whether Right Honorable R. L. Borden is one kind of statesman or another, but of the prime minister's wife opinion is not to be divided. Fine qualities were never given a woman who used them better.

Laurel, the youngest daughter of T.
H. Borden, married Robert Laird Borden in September, 1888. This is the month of their twenty-fourth wedding anniversary. Borden was then thirty-five years old. He had been called to the bar eleven years before and was regarded as a big lawyer of the east. He was the head of a big firm. He was for ten years president of the Nova Scotia Bar Association.
It was considered among the gossips of the town that Miss Laurel Borden had "done well." She and he would settle down to an agreeable life, entertaining to some extent no doubt,
and becoming part of the well-oiled social machinery of the city. They had visions of R. L. Borden and Mrs.
R. L. Borden growing into staid middle age and on into old age as a charming host and hostess who would always help to make the social firmament the brighter and the conversation of the spheres the happier for their presence in it. They saw no need for further ambition in R. L. Borden.
Was he not the leading lawyer of the country? Did not grave judges listen to him with their best attention? Did not the court rooms ring to his rounded periods? What more could a man want?

Seven years after he was married the present prime minister was elected to the Dominion House of Commons.
He had taken up a new battle after having won what many another man might have thought was enough for a life time: he had made himself a big lawyer. Now, however, he entered the field of Dominion politics, a stranger, a man who was by no means a "mixer," a man with ideals, and who wanted to stick to them. In the face of many an adverse circumstance R. L. Borden forged ahead to the leadership of his party, and finally won an election. And only at the end did the general public see the figure that had accompanied the prime minister all through the game. In opposition she was the charming hostess of a large circle of friends. As wife of the prime minister her hospitalities touched a whole city.

FREE TRIAL TREATMENT MAY CURE YOU

Kingston, Ont., June 4th, 1909.
Dear Mrs. Currah—I feel so very much better after using the 10 days' treatment of ORANGE LILY you were kind enough to send, that I will not require any more. In fact, I feel entirely well, and it is now a month since I stopped using the treatment. (Miss) F. W. T.

Similar letters to the above are not infrequent, though, of course, such cases are not of long standing. Most women who have suffered for any length of time will require to use ORANGE LILY longer than the Trial Treatment in order to effect a complete cure, but in every case they will be perceptibly benefited.
Further, the benefit will be permanent whether they continue to use ORANGE LILY or not. It is not taken internally, and does not contain any alcohol or other stimulant.
It is an applied treatment, and acts directly on the suffering organs. In all cases of women's disorders, these organs are congested, and to a greater or less extent, and a step towards better health and complete cure.

In order that every suffering woman may prove its good qualities, I will send enough of ORANGE LILY for 10 days' treatment, absolutely free, to each lady who sends me her address. MRS. FRANCES E. CURRAN, WINDSOR, ONT. 10 to have said on one occasion, "In the power of the home to make men realise their fullest efficiency. I believe that the home-making genius is the great gift a woman can have and the only one she should be really anxious to cultivate."

Sitting in spacious grounds on one of the quiet streets of Ottawa is the home of the prime minister. It speaks for the fact that what the prime minister's wife preaches she also practices.

But Mrs. Borden adds to her domestic qualities others. There is probably no woman in Canada who has a longer list of outside interests. In Halifax she was associated with almost every noteworthy woman's organization. In charities and corrective institutions, in social and educational organizations, she was always a foremost worker. Today in Ottawa she carries on these same interests. Hospitals, orphanages, women's clubs and the patriotic work of the daughters of the Empire have each a claim on her time and make her days busy.

Some years ago when the then leader of his majesty's loyal opposition was touring the province of Ontario, Mrs. Borden accompanied him. The leader of the Conservative party was in reality being introduced to the rank and file of the party. Mrs. Borden endured all the hardships of an itinerary designed to save time and cover a maximum of territory. Train connections, early and late, were no obstacle to her, and where her husband went she went also ready to render whatever assistance she could in a trying undertaking. The success of that first tour of Ontario was not due alone to the party leader, but some of it went to his wife, who, when the people had shaken hands with her husband, was receiving them a little to one side and unconsciously cementing the good impression he had created.

As a hostess Mrs. Borden is justly pronounced the leader in the city of hostesses, Ottawa. There, surrounded by her guests, she stands, receiving them from the one side and sending them on, into the room, at ease just for her few skillful words. She is a woman of presence. Her voice, facial expression and the eyes convey the idea of welcome in inimitable manner. Conversation begins easily. If there is time to prolong it, it may, so far as Mrs. Borden is concerned, cover a range of subjects, on all of which she is posted. Golf or hunting, or books or travel, art or music—she is interested in them all. As a statesman's wife, as a hostess, as a public-spirited citi-zeness, Mrs. R. L. Borden is distinguished among women.

Upton Sinclair, novelist, socialist and successful monogamist," will celebrate his thirty-fifth birthday to-day. The author of "The Jungle," which upset the world's stomach and resulted in reform in the meat packing industry, is a native of Baltimore. FIRST THINGS

The first woman's club in America was founded fifty-two years ago to-day at New Harmony, Ind., by Miss Constance Fantiery, afterwards Mrs. Constance Runcie, who is honored as the mother of the "great movement" which now extends to every city, town and village of the United States and Canada. The object of the pioneer club was the "development of literary culture" among the ladies of the little frontier community. To meetings were secret, no visitors were admitted; and voting was by ballot. The members submitted poems and stories at the club meetings, and those deemed worthy were sent to the New Harmony advertiser for publication. The organization was solidly in favor of woman suffrage. Mrs. Runcie, the founder of the club, later moved to St. Joseph, Mo., where she died not long ago. The Minerva Club, of New Harmony, owes its pre-eminence to the fact that the Indiana town was then a gathering place for religious, social and political radicals, among whom were Robert Dale Owen, Robert Fantiery, Frances Wright and Thomas Say. "The father of American socialism."

Marysville, Ind., has a population of 69,100 persons, of whom $30,421 are males.

EASTERN CANADIAN LETTER

BY B. B. COOKE

Toronto, Sept. 19.—The question of making the business administration of Canadian cities as efficient as the administration of a citizen's own affairs is being mooted in some of the Eastern cities just now. In Ottawa, John A. Cooper, the editor of the Canadian Courier, delivered a paper recently outlining the history of the municipal survey bureau in New York City in cutting down the operating expenses of the city, increasing the general efficiency of the departments in the city hall, and thus reducing the cost of carrying on the government of the community. Montreal has heard one or two lectures on the subject and has talked of taking up the question. Toronto, however, has taken definite steps to secure a survey of its administration by an expert from the New York bureau. To this end a group of private citizens have raised a fund of five thousand dollars. All that remains is to obtain the consent of the city council to allow the expert to have the necessary access to the books of the departments.

The idea originated in New York, where a group of big bankers donated anonymously a large sum of money to employ expert business men and accountants to examine the various departments of New York's city administration. It is now admitted that these men, by showing where waste was occurring and recommending ways of overcoming it, saved the city of New York large sums of money in one year alone. The bureau thus established has extended its influence outside of New York City. Other American cities have employed the experts maintained by the New York bureau to examine their systems and advise changes. It is their example that Toronto proposes to follow.

The proposal municipal survey is not a muck-raking campaign. It does not seek to uncover dishonesty so much as it seeks to show bad business methods and introduce better ones in their place. For instance, it will take up the question of costs of supplies and the quality of supplies. It is very often found that cities allow various departments to buy their supplies separately, paying a high price on small orders instead of getting a lower rate on the total orders for all departments. One department will perhaps have one way of bookkeeping and another department another system. The report of the expert aims to cover all these defects, point out ways of standardizing the business of all the departments and by showing how they can co-operate, to show how they can save money.

One of the arguments being put forward by the men who are interested in the movement in Toronto is that the authorities have no means of comparing the cost of certain work to Toronto against the cost of the same work to other cities. Toronto, it is claimed, cannot tell which of her employees is a good man and which is inefficient. The experts from New York are said to have the data from all the other cities in which they have worked. They have a fair idea of what an asphalt should cost laid down in a certain city. They can tell whether a city has been paying too much for cement paving or for the thousand and one supplies which are in constant demand by every up-to-date municipality. In New York they found underpaid clerks doing the work that should have been carried on by better men, or clerks who should have been paid for the class of work they were doing. They found highly paid clerks with nothing to do, and departments that were really well-managed in every other respect overloaded with clerks that were not needed but who had to be taken on to please influential aldermen. It is said that New York is by no means the only city that has such faults.

The group of private citizens who propose to survey for Toronto will approach the city council and will ask for the co-operation of the heads of the departments. It is to be made clear that it is not a partisan investigation or an effort to find fault. One of the other aims of the survey will be to assist the officials to make up their annual budgets earlier in the year and to make such documents clearer and more readily understood by any citizen who may choose to take an interest in them. It is also likely that methods of buying will be recommended which will make favoritism impossible and will encourage general competition among the people who wish to sell supplies to the city.

The Little Choir Master.

In two or three hundred homes in the city of Toronto there is being revived again a curious phenomenon, which until last year was an annual event in the city's calendar. Dr. Vogt, a little round musician, has returned to the city after a long trip abroad, and the Mendelssohn choir will resume its annual concerts early in the New Year. His singers are preparing accordingly. These concerts are claimed by Torontonians to be an event in the world of music; certainly they are admitted to be very important and to rank at least as high as the best choral organizations in the world. But the interesting feature of the re-organizing of the choir, which was disbanded last year and so missed a sensation, is the fact that one small man who is no great speaker and who is even short on conversational ability, can dominate so many people and get so much service from them—for nothing! These two hundred and more singers will commence practicing for the February concerts in a week or two. At first they will give up only one night a week, but before the concerts begin they will be spending practically every evening under the baton of the little conductor, fingering and re-fingering obscure—or seemingly obscure—passages of the various heavy compositions which they are to render at the concerts. Most of these people are men and women who have only their evenings for recreation and who work hard during the day time. They do not even have the satisfaction of singing the complete numbers, but nine nights out of ten are working over fragments of difficult passages, patiently accepting the criticisms of the maestro and seeking to achieve the perfection of which he speaks. For the announcement that the choir will practice for another series of concerts brings out hundreds of candidates for admission and scores of the old members, all eager to put themselves under the control of the most famous choir master in Canada, if not indeed in America.

French-Canadian Schools.

The smouldering embers of the bilingual question in Ontario have been fanned into a slight outburst of real flame by an announcement made by the minister of education for the province to the effect that the giving of instruction in the French language in French separate schools is no longer limited to one hour a day, but may be extended under the discretionary powers of the chief inspector of schools. The Orange element claim that this simply means the removal of all real restrictions. They point out that the law of Ontario no longer forbids the old use of the French language in such schools, and that it is left to the chief inspector and whatever prejudices he may have to decide whether the school children of Ontario are to grow up into two classes, English-speaking and French-speaking, or whether they are all to become accustomed to just one language, English. They say that although the chief inspector of schools to-day may be an English-speaking Canadian, there is no guarantee that he may not some day be a French-Canadian, backed by strong enough political influence to enable him to restore the old system of all-French schools.

The minister denies this and claims that the former rule which said French should not be used for more than one hour per day was not workable and that to try to enforce it simply meant to break up many a well-meaning school-teacher's hope of teaching her classes anything. He claims that in some districts the schools can get along with actually less than one hour a day, but that in others one hour is not enough to enable the teacher to give her French pupils the proper instruction. Nationalists in Montreal are pleased with the change. The Orange Order is frankly against it, but its protest is somewhat muffled by the fact that some of its present leaders hold government office in Ontario.

TIMBER ROYALTIES.

Minister of Lands Returns From Tour of the Lumber Centres.

Hon. W. R. Ross has returned from a tour of provincial centres undertaken as a commission of one to hear what the lumbermen had to say as to the timber royalty question. The lumbermen appeared to be anxious that the royalties should be fixed by legislation for a period of twenty-five years, their argument being that it was difficult to borrow money for the exploitation of their industry on the security of their timber licenses if they did not have such permanence in charges. If there was to be an increase in the royalty they suggested that it be fixed at a twenty-five cent. advance from 1915 to 1940, and another twenty-five cents from 1941 to 1965.

In the matter of the scale the Coast lumbermen asked that the British Columbia scale be adopted throughout the province, claiming that it gives the actual contents of a log while the Doyle scale, used by the interior lumbermen, does not.

CLAIMS ARE ALLOWED.

Plaintiff and Defendants Both Win to Some Extent in County Court Action.

The interpretation of an agreement between employer and employee was the point at issue yesterday afternoon in two cases heard by Judge Lampman. The plaintiff was H. B. Newbold and the defendants were the British Canadian Home Builders, Limited, and Ernest Kennedy, and there were counter-claims by the defendants.

Plaintiff is an architect and he was engaged for some time with the defendant company on a salary and commission basis. There was a written agreement between them and also some sort of a verbal understanding about which the parties did not quite coincide in their evidence.

The court after hearing the evidence as to the amount of work that had been done after Mr. Newbold left the company on which the fees were to be shared decided that the sum due to plaintiff by the defendants was $90, and the sum due on the counterclaim was the same. In addition to that sum a further amount of $54 was allowed Mr. Newbold as damages and costs were allowed at the rate for an action for $54.

H. W. R. Moore was for the plaintiff and H. B. Robertson for the defendants.

ARMS AND FACE VERY MUCH DISFIGURED

Skin Cracked and Bled, Causing Much Pain. Was Getting Discouraged. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Soothed Right Away. Used Them Four Weeks. Has Not Been Bothered Since.

8 Hunter St., Davisville, Toronto, Ontario.—"My little girl was troubled with cracked arms and face from the time she was born. They were certainly very much disfigured. The skin was sensitive and cracked and bled, causing much pain by smarting. When healing a little it took the form of itching. The trouble made her very cross. When she cried the tears would make it smart and cause more pain. I tried cold cream, and she would not have it, and it got better only to break out again when exposed to the air. She suffered for over three years and I was getting discouraged when I read of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for samples. Cuticura Ointment seemed to soothe it right away, where other ointments made it burn, so I bought some more. I used them for four weeks and she has not been bothered since. Her face and arms have never had a mark since, in fact her complexion is wonderfully clear." (Signed) Mrs. Underhill, Dec. 11, 1911.

Cuticura Soap is best for skin and hair because of its extreme purity, delicate yet effective emollient properties, and refreshing fragrance. It costs but little more than ordinary soap, wears to a wafer and gives comfort and satisfaction every moment of its use, for toilet, bath and nursery. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 25-c. skin book. Address: The Cuticura Drug & Chemical Corp., Dept. 407, Boston, U. S. A.

TO-DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY

By the Peace of Ryswick, signed on September 20, 1697, France recognized William III. as King of England, and it was hoped that for some considerable time at least there would be rest from strife. By its terms the French were allowed to keep the forts they had seized on Hudson's Bay, but the disputed boundaries of Acadia were left unsettled, and in this country "Queen Anne's War" followed hard on "King William's War." There was, however, a brief truce in the long struggle, though for months news of the peace did not reach Quebec. Indeed, it was not until July, 1698, that Frontenac, who was going to being the troops allies of the English to peace on his own terms, received the official announcement from Versailles. With this came an address from Louis XIV. to the people of Canada, in which it was stated that "To Douma" for the restoration of peace were to be sung in all the cathedrals of France, and his "faithful and beloved" subjects in New France were commanded to attend a special service of thanksgiving in the cathedral at Quebec on a day to be appointed by Count Frontenac. Accordingly on the following Sunday the cathedral was thronged and all Quebec kept holiday.

September 20 is the birthday of Most Rev. Samuel Pritchard Matheson, Archbishop of Rupert's Land, at Red River Settlement, 1852. On this date the Prince of Wales concluded his tour of Canada and entered the United States at Detroit, 1900; and Hon. A. G. Mackay was chosen leader of the Liberal party in Ontario, 1907.

Chief Langley Says Harbor Also Ought to Have Attention

Since the old Songhees reserve was abandoned over two years ago it has been practically without police protection, although no part of the city is more in need of watchful patrol.

A short time ago the provincial police authorities notified chief Langley that the city would hereafter have to look after the policing of that area. From the time the reserve was given up the provincial police were supposed to exercise supervision over the former home of the Songhees, but this was of a

John F. Mahon, London, Impressed With Province; New Reason for Conditions

Optimism is a valuable asset to a business man. It gives him faith in propositions which look blank to others of a different calibre and enables him to continue in weather storms before which the pessimist falls.

It is this quality of optimism which prompted John F. Mahon, now in this city, to invest over $100,000 in Vancouver while in the Terminal City and which makes him pin his faith on the future of Victoria, while most people are talking of financial depression.

Mr. Mahon is a brother of Sir William Henry Mahon and the husband of Lady Alice Evelyn, daughter of the Marquis of Salis. He is accompanied by his sister, Lady de Ros, who is a widow of the late Lord de Ros, premier baron of England, who did homage to His Majesty at the Coronation on the part of the barons.

This is Lady de Ros' first visit to Canada and after a drive around Victoria yesterday she expressed herself as delighted with the city and its surroundings. She will stay here for a day or two longer with her brother before proceeding east again to the Old Country.

Mr. Mahon states the cause of the urgency in Canada has never been properly appreciated. It is not, he believes, that the investors have not any faith in the Canadian municipalities, but the tightness has rather been due to the fact that British trade has been so eminently brisk during the last few months that every available penny was needed for the prosecution of interests at home.

"Of course," he added, "the Balkan war had also a good deal to do with the tightness. In these days of instantaneous communication between the capitals of the world, any depression in Berlin is felt at once in Vienna, St. Petersburg, London and even New York. The cable and the wireless have a good deal to do with present day conditions of finance."

Mr. Mahon, in addition to the property which he has just purchased, has very large estates in Vancouver and district, which he has held for over twenty years, and so strong is his faith in British Columbia as a coming country that he intends to hold on to those lands until he can sell them.

The reason for buying more at the present time (and he hopes to purchase property here in Victoria) is the low prices which prevail owing to the tightness of money in the west and the belief that the present financial condition will in a year from now be a thing of the past.

With the opening of the races to-day Secretary Banister of the B. C. Agricultural Association moved his office headquarters from the Law Chambers in Bastion street to the administration building at the fair grounds. The last entries in all events were received to-day and the total in almost every class far exceeded any figure yet recorded in the history of the fair. The women's building had still a little space left last night and Mrs. Hutchinson is spending each day at the building from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. getting everything in order.

A walk through the Made-in-Victoria building will show that aside from the value of giving an opportunity for local manufacturers to show the public what they are doing this feature of the fair will be a most interesting one to the casual visitor, great ingenuity being manifested by all the exhibitors in the arrangement of their displays.

Concessionaires were busy this morning getting their booths in working order to handle the business arising from the races this afternoon. Pink lemonade, popcorn, peanuts, fruit, candy and hamburgers sandwiched took a second place to the infinite varieties of ring and ball games for canes and knives and other prizes. A large number of side shows were practically ready this afternoon.

French's menagerie was moved to the grounds this afternoon and the wild beasts mingled their musical voices with the raucous cries of the vendors of refreshments and spicers for games, the whole giving a most realistic atmosphere from which, although the exhibition itself does not open until Tuesday.

The hotels are beginning to fill up with the customary fair visitors, and it is expected that by Tuesday the traffic will be quite equal to what it was during carnival week.

VISITS VICTORIA.

HERE ON VISIT.

Well-Known Scottish Colonel Arrived With Son Last Evening—Is Bank Director.

Colonel R. K. Stewart, convener of the County of Lanark, Scotland, since 1910, is here in Victoria on a short visit with his son. The colonel, who is 49 years of age, is not connected with the regular forces, but holds his commission in the Q. R. Y. Glasgow Yeomanry, from which he retired after seven years of service.

Colonel Stewart was chairman of the Shotts school board twenty-one years and chairman of Shotts parish council for six years. He entered the county council of Lanark in 1912 and was provincial grand master of the Lanark middle ward in the same year. He was appointed grand master deputy of Scotland in 1908 after ascending to the position of first grand principal of Scottish Royal Arch Masonry in 1907.

The colonel is a director of the Clydesdale Bank, is an ardent rifle shot, plays golf, and his permanent home at Murodstoun Castle, Newnham, N. B.

FREIGHT CARS COMING.

Six Flat Cars for Saanich Interurban on Their Way Over the Gulf—Also Two Passenger Cars.

An indication of the increased trade along the Saanich peninsula is given in the fact that six new flat cars are now on their way over from Vancouver for service on the Saanich Interurban line of the British Columbia Electric Railway. These cars will be used for the transportation of general freight, fruit and merchandise. Another feature of the freight business on the line is the increasing portage of cordwood which is going on.

The two new passenger cars for Victoria were shipped on special barges for this city to-day at Vancouver, and will probably be here ready for service on Sunday. They are large new cars of the double vestibule type, and will help considerably in dealing with the passenger-traffic of the city in the hours when it is most congested.

Remainder Preparations for Exhibition Will Be Directed on the Spot

With the opening of the races to-day Secretary Banister of the B. C. Agricultural Association moved his office headquarters from the Law Chambers in Bastion street to the administration building at the fair grounds. The last entries in all events were received to-day and the total in almost every class far exceeded any figure yet recorded in the history of the fair. The women's building had still a little space left last night and Mrs. Hutchinson is spending each day at the building from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. getting everything in order.

A walk through the Made-in-Victoria building will show that aside from the value of giving an opportunity for local manufacturers to show the public what they are doing this feature of the fair will be a most interesting one to the casual visitor, great ingenuity being manifested by all the exhibitors in the arrangement of their displays.

Concessionaires were busy this morning getting their booths in working order to handle the business arising from the races this afternoon. Pink lemonade, popcorn, peanuts, fruit, candy and hamburgers sandwiched took a second place to the infinite varieties of ring and ball games for canes and knives and other prizes. A large number of side shows were practically ready this afternoon.

French's menagerie was moved to the grounds this afternoon and the wild beasts mingled their musical voices with the raucous cries of the vendors of refreshments and spicers for games, the whole giving a most realistic atmosphere from which, although the exhibition itself does not open until Tuesday.

The hotels are beginning to fill up with the customary fair visitors, and it is expected that by Tuesday the traffic will be quite equal to what it was during carnival week.

Optimism is a valuable asset to a business man. It gives him faith in propositions which look blank to others of a different calibre and enables him to continue in weather storms before which the pessimist falls.

It is this quality of optimism which prompted John F. Mahon, now in this city, to invest over $100,000 in Vancouver while in the Terminal City and which makes him pin his faith on the future of Victoria, while most people are talking of financial depression.

Mr. Mahon is a brother of Sir William Henry Mahon and the husband of Lady Alice Evelyn, daughter of the Marquis of Salis. He is accompanied by his sister, Lady de Ros, who is a widow of the late Lord de Ros, premier baron of England, who did homage to His Majesty at the Coronation on the part of the barons.

This is Lady de Ros' first visit to Canada and after a drive around Victoria yesterday she expressed herself as delighted with the city and its surroundings. She will stay here for a day or two longer with her brother before proceeding east again to the Old Country.

Mr. Mahon states the cause of the urgency in Canada has never been properly appreciated. It is not, he believes, that the investors have not any faith in the Canadian municipalities, but the tightness has rather been due to the fact that British trade has been so eminently brisk during the last few months that every available penny was needed for the prosecution of interests at home.

"Of course," he added, "the Balkan war had also a good deal to do with the tightness. In these days of instantaneous communication between the capitals of the world, any depression in Berlin is felt at once in Vienna, St. Petersburg, London and even New York. The cable and the wireless have a good deal to do with present day conditions of finance."

Mr. Mahon, in addition to the property which he has just purchased, has very large estates in Vancouver and district, which he has held for over twenty years, and so strong is his faith in British Columbia as a coming country that he intends to hold on to those lands until he can sell them.

The reason for buying more at the present time (and he hopes to purchase property here in Victoria) is the low prices which prevail owing to the tightness of money in the west and the belief that the present financial condition will in a year from now be a thing of the past.

VETERAN MISSIONARY GOES TO HIS REWARD

Rev. Robert Tomlinson, of Meanskenisht, Came Here in 1866; Relatives Here

One of the pioneer and veteran missionaries of the Pacific coast passed away on Thursday at Meanskenisht, Skeena river. This was the Rev. Robert Tomlinson, who, as a young man, came to this country in 1866 from England, and proceeded almost directly to Meanskenisht, where, with his wife, he spent practically all his life.

Born at Bray, a few miles south of Dublin, in 1841, he went up to Trinity College, Dublin, while still only in his teens, and, having studied as a medical missionary, was ordained by the Bishop of London when he was in his twenty-fifth year, coming out the same season to take up the work for which he had prepared.

After a year's work in Meanskenisht, the young missionary returned to Victoria to marry Miss Alice Mary Woods, second daughter of Mr. Richard Woods, registrar of British Columbia, and a niece of the Ven. Archbishop Wood, the two having met the year before when Mr. Tomlinson was passing through the city on his way to the North. Dean Cridge, later Bishop Cridge, performed the ceremony in St. John's church, and the young bride of seventeen, with her husband, left a few days later in a big Indian canoe for her new home, seven Indian men and one native woman whom the missionary had brought with him, returning to the mission with the young couple. The last person whom they saw before their departure on the voyage, which occupied about three weeks, was Dean Cridge, who went down to give them his blessing as they passed Clover Point.

The missionary's labors were abundantly blessed. After some years at Meanskenisht he and his wife and family removed for a few years to a small station near Hazelton, but later they returned to their original post, and established a small Christian village. Among the surviving members of a large family is Miss Eleanor Tomlinson, who is nursing in Victoria, and who left last Thursday for Meanskenisht. Mrs. H. K. Andrew is a sister of Mrs. Tomlinson's, as are also the Misses Woods, of Pandora avenue.

DIOCESAN BOARD HAS INTERESTING SESSION

Vote of Sympathy Passed to Missionary's Widow; Literature Appreciated

At their first meeting of the season, held yesterday afternoon in Christ Church cathedral schoolroom, the Diocesan Board of the W. A. was presided over by Mrs. A. J. Doull, in the absence of the president, Mrs. A. F. Luxton, who is in England, and a considerable amount of business was planned for the ensuing months.

Mrs. Hiscoc's moved that a letter of condolence be sent to Mrs. Tomlinson, wife of Rev. R. Tomlinson, the pioneer Anglican Indian missionary, who died on Thursday at Meanskenisht, Skeena River, where he had labored among the Indians for the past 46 years.

Among the correspondence read by the secretary was a letter from the general treasurer regarding the disposition of money voted at the annual meeting, and showing that the sum of $55 had been sent to Rampart House, Y. T., and to the parsonage at Caledonia. The auxiliary had been asked by various missions for small assistance.

Rev. L. A. Todd, of Tofofo, having asked for a portable communion service, a sanctuary carpet and Bible for the children; the Industrial school at Alert Bay, household linen, and others. Lytton hospital wrote making some suggestions for Christmas gifts.

The meeting enjoyed a paper on "What we have learned from the study of Japan, both materially and spiritually," by Mrs. Norris.

At the annual general meeting to be held next month in Hamilton, it is hoped that the diocesan W. A. will be represented by Mrs. Luxton, and during the afternoon Mrs. Roper, wife of the Bishop of Columbia, was cordially welcomed back from her tour in England and Eastern Canada. The meeting closed with the singing of the Doxology, after which tea was served.

TO ASSIST WITH CONCERT

King's Daughters Will Give Entertainment on October 9 in Aid of Rest Room.

An exceptionally interesting event is to take place on October 9 at the Victoria theatre, when, under the auspices of the King's Daughters, and in aid of the rest room which this society has been conducting for the business girls of the city for the past ten months, Mrs. Macdonald Fahey and Miss Lugin will give a joint recital. The entertainment will be of double interest, first, as one of the opening concerts of the season, and, second, as an opportunity to the public to assist one of the best philanthropic enterprises which has been taken up in the city for some years.

The King's Daughters' rest room in Courtney street was opened last Octo-
